

CHAPTER ONE

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background to the study

Prepositional errors and deviant structures or utterances arising from the misapplication or ignorance of rules governing the use of prepositions in English grammar. These errors manifest in the use of the wrong prepositions, omission of some prepositions as well as inclusion of certain preposition (where they are unnecessary) in sentential expressions. These imperfect uses of language usually occur in both spoken and written communication.

Communication on the other hand is indispensable as far as social growth and development is concerned. All human societies depend on some sort of communication for survival, integration and co-existence. It encompasses using words, sounds, sign and behaviours to exchange information between individuals and groups in a given society. It is basically a channel whereby one mind could affect another through action, reaction and interaction. Shannon and Weaver (2009) conceptualize communication as the
