

PORT STATE INSPECTION CHECK LIST

Note: The check list contained in this chapter is an example which may be used by an Authority which has not developed its own list. Each Authority is free to decide whether to use this check list or its own check list. If its own check list is used, such list should contain at least all items included in the following list.

This check list is intended to be an aid to memory and an indication of items to be inspected. It is not exhaustive and may be extended or curtailed at a port State control officer's discretion. Inspection of every item in each category is not required but the port State control officer is to inspect sufficient items in order to form an objective impression of the overall condition.

Port State control inspections should be carried out with the knowledge of the ship's master or his deputy. When exercising the port State inspection, the port State control officer should be accompanied by a responsible person nominated by the master or his deputy during the inspection.
