Introduction To Psycholinguistics Lecture 1 Introduction:

Ten Lectures on Language, Cognition, and Language Acquisition Melissa Bowerman, 2018-07-17 In her Beijing lectures Melissa Bowerman presents a lucid introduction and account of her research on a range of topics how children acquire the semantics of spatial terms how they construct categories and acquire the semantics of nouns and how they master the semantics of verbs in early language acquisition Bowerman also covers the learning of argument structure and expressions of end state with special attention to the adult speech that guides children and hence also the role of typology in acquisition how cross linguistic variation affects for example how speakers represent cutting and breaking in different languages and the relation of the Whorfian Hypothesis to cross linguistic variations in the semantics of languages Bowerman's over riding concern throughout is with how children come to master the first language being spoken to them by their parents and caregivers

Twelve Lectures on Multilingualism David Singleton, Larissa Aronin, 2018-11-20 This major new textbook offers an accessible introduction to many of the most interesting areas in the study of multilingualism It consists of twelve lectures written by leading researchers each dedicated to a particular topic of importance Each lecture offers a state of the art authoritative review of a subdiscipline of the field The volume sheds light on the ways in which the use and acquisition of languages are changing providing new insights into the nature of contemporary multilingualism It will be of interest both to undergraduate and postgraduate students working in linguistics related disciplines and students in associated social sciences

Analyzing Multimodality in Specialized Discourse Settings Veronica Bonsignori, Belinda Crawford Camiciottoli, Denise Filmer, 2022-03-01 Contemporary society has witnessed radical changes in the field of communications in terms of how messages and meanings are disseminated Digitalization and the Internet have signalled an exponential rise in the circulation of multimodal texts in which different semiotic resources are orchestrated together to construct meaning in all areas of social life across languages and cultures and in diverse specialized discourse domains This has foregrounded the need to examine the semiotic functions affordances and issues at stake in a range of multimodal discourse forms while simultaneously highlighting the importance of critical multimodal literacy in audiences and learners This volume develops and extends pioneering research on the intersection between multimodality and specialized discourse Eight newly commissioned studies offer innovative perspectives on multimodal research methodologies and applications in a variety of ESP English for Specific Purposes contexts for practitioners and scholars alike The volume offers a glimpse at future directions in this dynamic and ever evolving area of investigation focusing on the synergy between verbal and non verbal modes of communication in the digital age Each chapter explores an original area of application academic economic scientific marketing legal medical political and tourism The contributors approach multimodality from a range of theoretical and methodological viewpoints including synchronic and diachronic corpus based and corpus aided studies critical discourse analysis and systemic functional linguistics Analytical tools such as multimodal critical discourse analysis multimodal transcription and multimodal annotation software capable of representing the interplay of different semiotic modes speech intonation direction of gaze facial expressions gesturing and spatial positioning of interlocutors are employed The diversity of research strands contained in the volume illustrates just some of the vast areas of multimodal knowledge dissemination that are still unmapped As a cornerstone of communication multimodality needs exploring in all its facets These contributions aim to further that cause

LSA Bulletin Linguistic Society of America,1973 Ten Lectures on Grammar in the Mind Ewa Dąbrowska,2017-05-01 This volume presents a synthesis of cognitive linguistic theory and research on first and second language acquisition language processing individual differences in linguistic knowledge and on the role of multi word chunks and low level schemas in language production and comprehension It highlights the tension between linguists grammars which are strongly influenced by principles such as economy and elegance and speakers grammars which are often messy less than fully general and sometimes inconsistent and argues that cognitive linguistics is an empirical science which combines study of real usage events and experiments which rigorously test specific hypotheses
