Rowling (Author and Creator of Harry Potter and The Tales of Beedle the Bard) Sara McEwen, 2012-02-29 ABOUT THE BOOK In 1990 traveling on a train between London and Manchester a 25 year old British woman suddenly had an amazing idea for a novel The shy young woman was too nervous to approach any of her fellow passengers for a piece of paper or pen so she sat and gazed out the window of the train while she imagined the world she wanted to create By the time she arrived home the woman had a clear idea of the characters and story Although she had never published any novels or even stories she set about writing down her ideas slowly forming them into a complete world Over the course of the next several years J K Rowling would experience massive life changes and many challenges and joys from the death of her mother to the birth of her daughter Through it all the single working mother kept on writing She had to write her entire novel by hand and then type it out on a typewriter When she found an agent to represent her novel Rowling was hopeful that her hard work would finally pay off However publishers barely gave the novel a second look After a while it seemed to Rowling that her novel had just been a waste of time and resources since nobody else could see the same magic in the manuscript that she could see herself
