Customs & Excises in One Lesson Christiaan Viljoen de Lange, 2025-11-07 Customs and Excises continue to be shrouded in mystery primarily due to the inconsistency in the use of its terminology its application and ignorance The primary challenge is that its applied terminology is not unique or subject specific As a consequence it tends to be erroneously read interpreted and understood for its linguistic meaning rather than for its specific Customs and Excises meaning Another more critical oversight is that Customs and Excises are inherently Economics founded on its principles As the scope of Customs and Excises is so broad it is not realistic to consider it as a specialisation without defining the demarcated focus The focus of this book is solely on the goods the merchandise This book challenges the fallacy that the Customs and Excises environment is not susceptible to a coherent summary It will provide you with a unique and innovative roadmap supplemented with figures that can be used independently or as a collective to easily navigate your way through the Customs and Excises cornerstones concepts methodologies and procedures and to provide you with a Customs Optimisation Process which was derived from the Lesson Customs and Excises can be reduced to a single lesson and itself into a single sentence The art of Customs and Excises consists of not merely accepting the terminology for its linguistic meaning it consists of ensuring that the terminology its context its meaning and its effective efficient and compliant application are fully understood and appreciated in both its reference and application For the purpose of simplicity and ease of understanding the book is presented in two parts Part I The Lesson Part II The Lesson Applied Key topics include identifying the Customs and Excises cornerstones its application to the Trade Remedies identifying the various types of duties taxes levies tariff barriers Non Tariff Measures and Non Tariff Barriers categorising and organising the Special Customs Procedures Regimes and their relation depicting the trade blocs and their respective stages of economic integration an insight into the International Commercial Terms Incoterms and their evolution reflecting on Denied Party Screening and Sanctions Screening offering an insight into the International Organisations Agreements Conventions Standards and Frameworks as well as reflecting on the more relevant acronyms elucidation of terms and selected resources to enhance the Lesson the In a minute I am™ Customs and Excises Series which offers a succinct summation of the more pertinent Customs and Excises concepts and the Points of Interest which encapsulates the Section This book caters to Customs and Excises compliance practitioners trade compliance practitioners students and young professionals who are in the early stages of understanding the nuances of Customs and Excises It also informs tax practitioners in house tax counsel academics working in international organisations business executives advisory firms and government officials for whom it may not be a specialisation but who are interested in gaining an understanding or even a working knowledge of its intricacies and foundation
