Theater in a Post-Truth World William C. Boles, 2022-06-30 This is the first book to examine how the concept and disagreements around post truth have been explored in the world of theater and performance It covers a wide spectrum of manifestations and expressions from the plays of Caryl Churchill Anne Washburn and David Henry Hwang to the inherent theatricality of press conferences FBI interviews and protests that embrace the confusion created by post truth rhetoric to muddy issues and deflect blame to theatrical performance where the nature of truth is challenged through staged visuals which run counter to what the audience hears provoking a debate about where the truth actually lies With contributions by scholars from around the world Theater in a Post Truth World considers a wide array of examples from American and British drama and politics Australian theater and the work of performance artist Marina Abramovic Together these provide a glimpse into how the theater in its many forms provides a venue to raise awareness and encourage critical thinking about the contemporary ubiquity of post truth

Contemporary Australian Playwriting Chris Hay, Stephen Carleton, 2022-11-29 Contemporary Australian Playwriting provides a thorough and accessible overview of the diverse and exciting new directions that Australian Playwriting is taking in the twenty first century In 2007 the most produced playwright on the Australian mainstage was William Shakespeare In 2019 the most produced playwright on the Australian mainstage was Nakkiah Lui a Gamilaroi and Torres Strait Islander woman This book explores what has happened both on stage and off to generate this remarkable change As writers of colour queer writers and gender diverse writers are produced on the mainstage in larger numbers they bring new critical directions to the twenty first century Australian stage At a politically turbulent time when national identity is fractured this book examines the ways in which Australia s leading playwrights have interrogated problematised and tried to make sense of the nation Tracing contemporary trends the book takes a thematic approach to the re evaluation of the nation that is dramatized in key Australian plays Each chapter is accompanied by a duologue between two of the playwrights whose work has been analysed to provide a dual perspective of theory and practice
