Decision-Making in Business Management through Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning Joeleen Kimbell,2025-02-03 Case Study from the year 2024 in the subject Business economics E-Commerce grade A language English abstract This paper focuses on how Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning have changed decisions in retailing, healthcare, financing, and manufacturing careers. They demonstrate how AI is used in supply chain management to support the decision-making process by making forecasts, processing data, and optimizing operations, leading to higher efficiency, decreased costs, and increased customer satisfaction. Thus, the research incorporates quantitative and qualitative approaches such as surveys and interviews with key stakeholders and employs statistical and content analysis methods. While adopting the decision theory and systems thinking perspectives, this research paper highlights the necessity of effectively and adequately implementing AI into an organization permanently to achieve more benefits. The following are realizable out-of-the-box solutions that the study suggests, including: audiences for employees, data protection for compliance, and conscientization of fairness in AI algorithms. Future directions include situations where these applications are to be broadened to weigh on ethical issues and to encourage optimal technological fairness that will, in turn, ensure sustainable business improvement and innovation. Learn Like a Lobster Sarah Ellis, Helen Tupper,2026-02-24 An empowering guide to career growth that reveals how to be more lobster—to never stop learning and pave the way to a meaningful working life. In today's working world, careers are characterized by change. You can take control of your own development at any time, but many of us don't, as we feel held back by time, money, or imposter syndrome. Careers used to be linear and ladder-like. They were about following in other people's footsteps and focused on getting to the top. This predictable approach to careers no longer fits, and it doesn't reflect people's reality or their individuality. Enter the lobster, which never stops growing. Inspired by the lobster superstar career coaches Helen Tupper and Sarah Ellis show you how to achieve a meaningful and motivating career Ask questions experiment every day and increase your impact Grow in hard moments take in feedback and adapt to new circumstances And create your own opportunities to grow By learning like a lobster you will find the path to level up
