Digital Nomads Rachael A. Woldoff, Rachael Woldoff, Robert C. Litchfield, 2021 In Digital Nomads Rachael Woldoff and Robert Litchfield take readers into an expatriate digital nomad community in Bali Indonesia to better understand this growing demographic of younger workers From dozens of interviews and several stints living in a digital nomad hub Woldoff and Litchfield detail the factors that drove this set of workers to flee their conventional lives in search of meaningful work community and opportunities for personal development on their own terms The Future of Travel Daniel Maurer, 2025-12-02 A leading food and travel journalist depicts and predicts the good the bad and the ugly about the future of travel and how we can transcend the complications of climate change AI and touristification Travel is easier more accessible and more tempting than ever before in today s world But what impact is our globetrotting having on local communities and the environment From his own experiences spending time in countries from Spain to Argentina to Japan travel writer Daniel Maurer has seen first hand the impact of growing cultural homogenization and anger at the tourists driving it Speaking to locals and immigrants activists and protestors he hears of the problems of rising living costs overcrowding anti social behaviour and the erosion of local traditions and ways of life caused by overtourism Some cities already have plans in place to combat it including tourist taxes carbon emission targets and airbnb bans and in the coming years more will take drastic measures to tackle not only a flood of tourists but of a growing worldwide workforce of location independent professionals Technological advances are also changing the way we interact with the world and the future promises amazing things from flying cars to VR headsets to AI travel influencers and chatbots But there s a constant battle between technology making things more easily accessible and the need to reduce human impact on the world What choices might we make when it comes to travelling in the future and can we become more impact conscious making more sustainable and thoughtful decisions

Urban Marginality, Racialisation, Interdependence Filip Alexandrescu, Ryan Powell, Ana Vilenica, 2025-03-05 This timely and interdisciplinary book deals with urban marginality as a multi faceted process of urban transformation that engenders a wide range of experiences world wide Through the application of new empirical material and novel theoretical syntheses that exceed conceptual binaries East West North South the authors explore shifting contemporary experiences of marginality in various urban contexts in Eastern Europe EE The unique articulation between global processes such as gentrification financialization racialization and spatialization and the distinctive histories contestations and dislocations that characterize EE cities calls for increasing scholarly attention The volume explores new patterns and drivers of urban marginality and racialization and at the same time connects these to wider problematics of advanced capitalist cities as well as to post socialist and anti colonial urbanisms The fourteen chapters contribute to a more nuanced understanding of global urbanism that decentres dominant Anglophone conceptualisations Contributions focus empirically and theoretically on Czechia Estonia Hungary Kosovo Latvia Lithuania Romania Serbia and Ukraine The volume
