Papers presented in the twenty-third conference in the series covered theories as well as applications of intelligent systems in solving complex real life problems. We received 297 papers for the main track selecting 119 of them with the highest quality standards. Each paper was revised by at least three members of the Program Committee.

Strategic Market Analysis Christine Moorman, 2018 New Trends in Process Control and Production Management Lenka Štofová, Petra Szaryszová, 2017-09-27 Dynamic economic technological changes increasing pressure from competition and customers to improve manufacturing and services are some of the major challenges to enterprises these days. New ways of improving organizational activities and management processes have to be created in order to allow enterprises to manage the seemingly intensifying competitive markets successfully. Enterprises apply business optimizing solutions to meet new challenges and conditions. But also ensuring effective development for long term competitiveness in a global environment. This is necessary for the application of qualitative changes in the industrial policy. New Trends in Process Control and Production Management MTS 2017 is the collection of research papers from authors from seven countries around the world. They present case studies and empirical research which illustrates the progressive trends in business process management and the drive to achieve enterprise development and sustainability.

Marketing Semiotics Research: Consumption Trends, AI, and the Economics of Experience Boero, Marianna, Piccolo, Rossana, 2025-11-20 Effective marketing practices value communication through various channels to achieve customer retention and brand resilience. For this reason, semiotics can be a valuable ally in simplifying this process. Through semiotics, the laws of structural linguistics to the analysis of verbal, visual, and spatial sign systems are extended. The semiotic method helps read hidden strategies and can be used as strategic support across a range of activities in the field of brand communication. From the analysis of an advertisement and the study of more extensive communication campaigns to the communicative coherence control and the design of logos, packaging, and retail space, further study may help businesses build successful marketing campaigns. Marketing Semiotics Research: Consumption Trends, AI, and the Economics of Experience increases the understanding of how marketing semiotics and advertising can interact. It presents the state of semiotic research in the field of marketing, advertising, and consumption and provides direction for future research focusing on how social change is reflected in the consumption system. Covering topics such as sales strategies, behavioral shifts, and consumer experiences, this book is an excellent resource for marketing practitioners, communication specialists, linguists, business leaders, professionals, researchers, scholars, academicians, and more.
