Read the passage and answer Questions 1–10.

"Didn't I tell you about the direness of the situation already? You never listen to what I say!" At the urgency and sheer volume of my mother's voice, I shot out of bed immediately, desperate to find out what was happening that had caused my mother to flare her temper. Whilst gobbling down on the macaroni and chicken soup which our mother made for us, Jasmine recounted her gaming experiences, showing me how to play her games and the screenshot in which she was placed first in the global leaderboard. Day by day, we set out for this routine for the month in the run-up to her exams, increasing her knowledge and ability to handle any question that various assessment books had, while also taking the time to bond with each other.
