

English 3rd semester BA LLB 2 mark question answers

1. Communication

Communication is the act of sharing information, be it thoughts, ideas, feelings or data, between two or more entities. This exchange can be achieved through various mediums like spoken or written language, gestures, symbols, or even behavior. The primary goal of communication is to establish a mutual understanding between the participants. In the context of business, effective communication is crucial for achieving commercial success, and involves skills like verbal and nonverbal communication, emotional intelligence, and active listening. Communication is essential for human survival and organizational effectiveness, as it fosters understanding, clarity, and connection.

2. Elements of the communication process

The communication process is a dynamic cycle that involves several key elements. It starts with the sender, who conceptualizes an idea and encodes it into a message. This message is then transmitted via a channel, such as speech or writing, to the receiver. The receiver decodes the message, interprets its meaning, and provides feedback to the sender. Noise can disrupt the process at any stage, acting as a barrier to effective communication. Understanding these elements is essential for analyzing and improving communication effectiveness.

3. 7 Cs of communication

The 7 Cs of communication are a set of guidelines for achieving effective and clear communication. These principles emphasize the importance of:

- Clarity - Ensuring the message is easily understood.
- Correctness - Using proper grammar, spelling, and accurate information.
- Completeness - Providing all necessary information for the audience.
- Concreteness - Using specific language to avoid misinterpretations.
- Conciseness - Keeping the message brief and to the point.
- Consideration - Taking the audience's perspective and needs into account.
- Courtesy - Demonstrating respect and positive regard for the audience.

4. Effective Communication

Effective communication is a two-way process where the intended message is received and understood by the recipient in the way it was meant by the sender. It involves not
