Culture Indigenous Knowledge And Development In Africa:

Culture, Indigenous Knowledge and Development in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2014-03-16 The continent of Africa is richly endowed with diverse cultures a body of indigenous knowledge and technologies These bodies of knowledge and technologies that are indeed embodied in the diverse African cultures are as old as humankind From time immemorial they have been used to solve socio economic political health and environmental problems and to respond to the development needs of Africans Yet with the advent of colonialism and Western scientism these African cultures knowledges and technologies have been despised and relegated to the periphery to the detriment of the self reliant development of Africans It is out of this observation and realisation that this book was born The book is an exploration of the practical problems resulting from Africa s encounter with Euro colonialism a reflection of the nexus between indigenous knowledge culture and development and indeed a call for the revival and reinstitution of indigenous knowledge not as a challenge to Western science but a complementary form of knowledge necessary to steer and promote sustainable development in Africa and beyond This is a valuable book for policy makers institutional planners practitioners and students of social anthropology education political and social ecology and development African and heritage studies Indigenous Knowledge and Learning in Asia/Pacific and Africa D. Kapoor, E. Shizha, 2010-09-27 This collection makes a unique contribution towards the amplification of indigenous knowledge and learning by adopting an inter trans disciplinary approach to the subject that considers a variety of spaces of engagement around knowledge in Asia and Africa Culture, Indigenous Knowledge and Development in Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, 2024-11-29 The continent of Africa is richly endowed with diverse cultures a body of indigenous knowledge and technologies These bodies of knowledge and technologies that are indeed embodied in the diverse African cultures are as old as humankind From time immemorial they have been used to solve socio economic political health and environmental problems and to respond to the development needs of Africans Yet with the advent of colonialism and Western scientism these African cultures knowledges and technologies have been despised and relegated to the periphery to the detriment of the self reliant development of Africans It is out of this observation and realisation that this book was born The book is an exploration of the practical problems resulting from Africa s encounter with Euro colonialism a reflection of the nexus between indigenous knowledge culture and development and indeed a call for the revival and reinstitution of indigenous knowledge not as a challenge to Western science but a complementary form of knowledge necessary to steer and promote sustainable development in Africa and beyond This is a valuable book for policy makers institutional planners practitioners and students of social anthropology education political and social ecology and development African and heritage studies Culture and Rural-Urban Revitalisation in South Africa Mziwoxolo

Sirayi, Modimowabarwa Kanyane, Giulio Verdini, 2021-06-14 This book captures ground breaking attempts to utilise culture in territorial development and regeneration processes in the context of South Africa and our new normal brought by COVID 19

the fourth industrial revolution and climate change the world over The importance of culture in rural urban revitalisation has been underestimated in South Africa and the African continent at large Despite some cultural initiatives that are still at developmental stages in big cities such as Johannesburg eThekweni and Cape Town there is concern about the absence of sustainable policies and plans to support culture creativity and indigenous knowledge at national and municipal levels Showcasing alternative strategies for making culture central to development this book discusses opportunities to shift culture and indigenous knowledge from the peripheries and place them at the epicentre of sustainable development and the mainstream of cultural planning which can then be applied in the contexts of Africa and the Global South Governmental institutions research councils civil society organisations private sector and higher education institutions come together in a joint effort to explain the nexus between culture economic development rural urban linkages grassroots and technological innovations Culture and Rural Urban Revitalization in South Africa is an ideal read for those interested in rural and urban planning cultural policy indigenous knowledge and smart rural village model

Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa s development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies

Violence, Politics and Conflict Management in Africa Mawere, Munyaradzi, Marongwe, Ngonidzashe, 2016-09-01 This volume critically interrogates from different angles and dimensions the resilience of conflict and violence into 21st century Africa The demise of European colonial administration in Africa in the 1960s wielded fervent hope for enduring peace for the people of Africa Regrettably conflict alongside violence in all its dimensions physical religious political psychological and structural remain unabated and occupy central stage in contemporary Africa The resilience of conflict and violence on the continental scene invokes unsettling memories of the past while negatively influencing the present and future of crafting inclusive citizenship and statehood he book provides fresh insightful ethnographic and intellectual material for rethinking violence and conflict and for fostering long lasting peace and political justice on the continent and beyond With its penetrating focus on conflict and associated trajectories of violence in Africa the book is an inestimable asset for conflict management practitioners political scientists historians civil society activists and leaders in economics and politics as well as all those interested in the affairs of Africa

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON NEOLIBERAL GLOBALIZATION, DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION IN AFRICA AND ASIA Dip Kapoor, 2011-10-30 This interdisciplinary collection of readings pertaining to schooling higher education adult and community development education indigenous education and social movement learning in the African and Asian regions is a contribution to anti critical colonial scholarship in comparative international education and the sociology of education The political and analytical standpoint that weaves through the text considers the imbrications of the colonial and imperial projects currently referenced as neoliberal globalization globalization of capitalism and development compulsory Eurocentric modernization and their attendant and mutual implications for education social reproduction and hegemony Counter anti hegemonic and indigenous education projects and pre existing alternatives are registered in the critique At last a remarkable collection of essays written by a range of scholars mostly originating from Asia and Africa demonstrating with admirable clarity how policies and practices of neo liberal globalization in those regions cannot be adequately understood without appreciating how they are a product of the exploitative histories of colonialism Written with conceptual sophistication personal knowledge and deep conviction these essays represent a major scholarly intervention in contemporary debates about globalization and education

Fazal Rizvi Professor Graduate School of Education University of Melbourne Australia Professor Emeritus University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign USA This intriguing and provocative volume deals with crucial intersections between global forces and national initiatives with respect to the most crucial agency of transformation education The cumulative efforts of this assembly of committed intellectuals reveal the forces that retard progress in the two largest continents and offers compelling suggestions on how to redefine the boundaries of power the contents of knowledge and the use of critical thinking to create alternative spaces of autonomy freedom liberation and empowerment

Toyin Falola University Distinguished Professor Frances Higginbotham Nalle Centennial Professor University of Texas at Austin This volume well crafted by Dip Kapoor one of the finest scholars in the postcolonial education field brings together writers who examine processes of learning and education more broadly within the context of the dominant discourses of globalisation and development They unveil the underlying neocolonial neoliberal tenets of these processes strongly echoing what Hardt and Negri would call Empire In short another important reading resource provided by Dip Kapoor and colleagues

Peter Mayo Professor Chair Educational Studies University of Malta Finally a much awaited intervention on neoliberal globalization from Asian and African perspectives This book makes a compelling case for a historically grounded regionally specific analysis of globalization The contributions are extraordinary for their textured and embedded analysis of neoliberal globalization One of those rare books that deserve to be read across the social sciences

Between Rhetoric and Reality Munyaradzi Mawere, Samuel

Awuah-Nyamekye,2015-04-03 Since time immemorial indigenous peoples around the world have developed knowledge systems to ensure their continued survival in their respective territories These knowledge systems have always been dynamic such that they could meet new challenges Yet since the so called enlightenment period these knowledges have been supplanted by the Western enlightenment science or colonial science hegemony and arrogance such that in many cases they were relegated to the periphery Some Euro centric scholars even viewed indigenous knowledge as superstitious irrational and anti development This erroneous view has since the colonial period spread like veld fire to the extent of being internalised by some political elites and Euro centric academics of Africa and elsewhere However for some time now the potential role that indigenous peoples and their knowledge can play in addressing some of the global problems haunting humanity across the world is increasingly emerging as part of international discourse This book presents an interesting and insightful discourse on the state and role that indigenous knowledge can play in addressing a tapestry of problems of the world and the challenges connected with the application of indigenous knowledge in enlightenment science dominated contexts The book is not only useful to academics and students in the fields of indigenous studies and anthropology but also those in other fields such as environmental science social and political ecology development studies policy studies economic history and African studies The Complex Interplay between Power, Politics, and African Agency Serges Djoyou Kamga,2024-11-15 Using Toyin Falola s contributing works this book offers a unique perspective on the intricate dynamics of African society to reveal the importance of understanding the role of power politics and African agency in addressing Africa s developmental ills Indigenous Discourses on Knowledge and Development in Africa Edward Shizha,Ali A. Abdi,2013-12-04 African social development is often explained from outsider perspectives that are mainly European and Euro American leaving African indigenous discourses and ways of knowing and doing absent from discussions and debates on knowledge and development This book is intended to present Africanist indigenous voices in current debates on economic educational political and social development in Africa The authors and contributors to the volume present bold and timely ideas and scholarship for defining Africa through its challenges possible policy formations planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels The book also reveals insightful examinations of the hype the myths and the realities of many topics of concern with respect to dominant development discourses and challenges the misconceptions and misrepresentations of indigenous perspectives on knowledge productions and overall social well being or lack thereof The volume brings together researchers who are concerned with comparative education international development and African development research and practice in particular Policy makers institutional planners education specialists governmental and non governmental managers and the wider public should all benefit from the contents and analyses of this book Indigenous Knowledge and Education in Africa Chika Ezeanya-Esiobu,2019-04-30 This open access book presents a strong philosophical theoretical and practical argument for the mainstreaming of indigenous knowledge in curricula development and in teaching and learning across the African continent Since the dawn of political independence in Africa there has been an ongoing search for the kind of education that will create a class of principled and innovative citizens who are sensitive to and committed to the needs of the continent When indigenous or environment generated knowledge forms the basis of learning in classrooms learners are able to immediately connect their education with their lived reality The result is much introspection creativity and innovation across fields sectors and disciplines leading to societal transformation Drawing on several theoretical assertions examples from a wide range of disciplines and experiences gathered from different continents at different points in history the book establishes that for education to trigger the necessary transformation in Africa it should be constructed on a strong foundation of learners indigenous knowledge The book presents a distinct and uncharted pathway for Africa to advance sustainably through home grown and grassroots based ideas leading to advances in science and technology growth of indigenous African business and the transformation of Africans into conscious and active participants in the continent s progress Indigenous Knowledge and Education in Africa is of interest to educators entrepreneurs policymakers researchers and individuals engaged in finding sustainable and strategic solutions to regional and global advancement The Development of Africa Arthur Silva White,1892 Globalization, Democracy and Development in Africa Taye Assefa,Severine Mushambampale Rugumamu,Abdel Ghaffar Muhammad Ahmad,2001 This is the story from an established Kenyan author of Mwende a young girl from Koola She tells of her wicked step mother and hard life how she tried to run away to Nairobi to find her father After various misadventures she is eventually happily reunited with her father The story has simple drawings illustrating the start of each chapter Africa's Development Thinking Since Independence Africa Institute of South Africa,2004 Newly revised and updated this edition brings together in a single volume a series of public documents pertaining to Africa s development since independence These are various resolutions declarations treaties and plans of action which represent key moments and turning points in recent history from across the African continent In its entirety the collection of documents reflects how development ideas and processes have evolved from the early sixties to the present day Some of the documents included are the Charter of the OAU the Monrovia Declaration of Commitment of the OAU Heads of State and Government the Lagos Plan of Action the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights Banjul charter the UN Declaration on the Critical Economic Situation in Africa the African Common Position on Africa s External Debt Crisis the Treaty Establishing the African Economic Community the Cairo Plan of Action The Conference on Security Stability Development and Co operation in Africa and The New Partnership for Africa s Development The volume also includes an introduction on the wider context of the documents by Eddie Maloka the director of the Africa Institute of South Africa and a critical essay on Africa s development thinking by an economic and foreign policy analyst Culture, Gender, Science and Technology in Africa K.
