The Ice Queen Alice Hoffman, 2005-04-01 From the bestselling author of The Rules of Magic a miraculous enthralling tale of a woman who is struck by lightning and finds her frozen heart is suddenly burning Be careful what you wish for A woman who was touched by tragedy as a child now lives a quiet life keeping other people at a cool distance She even believes she wants it that way Then one day she utters an idle wish and while standing in her house is struck by lightning But instead of ending her life this cataclysmic event sparks a strange and powerful new beginning She goes in search of Lazarus Jones a fellow survivor who was struck dead then simply got up and walked away Perhaps this stranger who has seen death face to face can teach her to live without fear When she finds him he is her perfect opposite a burning man whose breath can boil water and whose touch scorches As an obsessive love affair begins between them both hide their most dangerous secrets what happened in the past that turned one to ice and the other to fire A magical story of passion loss and renewal The Ice Queen is Alice Hoffman at her electrifying best

The Ice Queen Ernest Ingersoll, 1925-01-01 The early dusk of a December day was fast changing into darkness as three of the young people with whose adventures this story is concerned trudged briskly homeward The day was a bright one and Aleck the oldest who was a skilled workman in the brass foundry although scarcely eighteen years of age had given himself a half holiday in order to take Kate and The Youngster on a long skating expedition down to the lighthouse Kate was his sister two years younger than he and The Youngster was a brother whose twelfth birthday this was The little fellow never had had so much fun in one afternoon he thought and maintained stoutly that he scarcely felt tired at all The ice had been in splendid condition the day calm but cloudy so that their eyes had not ached and they had been able to go far out upon the solidly frozen surface of the lake How far do you think we have skated to day Aleck asked The Youngster It s four miles from the lower bridge to the lighthouse spoke up Kate before Aleck could reply and four back That makes eight miles to begin with Yes said Aleck and on top of that you must put let me see I should think counting all our twists and turns fully ten miles more We were almost abreast of Stony Point when we were farthest out and they say that s five miles long Altogether then we skated about eighteen miles Right my boy your arithmetic is your strong point Well I should say his feet were his strong point to day Kate exclaimed in admiration of her brother s hardihood It wasn t a bad day s work for a girl I know of either remarked Aleck as he took the key from his pocket and opened the door of their house which was soon bright with lamplight and a crackling fire of oak and hickory The house these three dwelt in was a small cottage in an obscure street of the village but it was warm and tight Kate was housekeeper and The Youngster whose real name was James contracted first into Jim and then into Jimkin was man of all work and maid of all work too sometimes when Kate needed his help While these two are getting tea and Aleck is carefully wiping the skates and putting them away where no rust can have a chance at the blades or mice gnaw the straps let me tell you a few things about the family Jim could remember his father only vaguely but Kate and Aleck could tell us all about him His name was Kincaid and he was a master builder of houses He had bought and fitted up the cottage and had put savings in the bank though Mrs Kincaid was sick much of the time so that money was spent that would have been laid by for a rainy day if she had been strong and well The Snow Queen, Level 17 Chris
