It's called content marketing, and this book is a great way to master this new technique.

Guy Kawasaki Chief evangelist of Canva and author of The Art of the Start 2.0. How do you take the maximum amount of risk out of starting a business? Joe Pulizzi shows us.

Fascinate your audience, then turn them into loyal fans. Content Inc. shows you how. Use it as your roadmap to startup success.

Jay Baer New York Times bestselling author of Youtility. The approach to business taught all over the world is to create a product and then spend a bunch of money to market and sell it. Joe outlines a radically new way to succeed in business: Develop your audience first by creating content that draws people in, and then watch your business sell itself.

David Meerman Scott bestselling author of ten books including The New Rules of Sales and Service. The digital age has fundamentally reshaped the cost curve for entrepreneurs. Joe describes the formula for developing a purpose-driven business that connects with an engaged and loyal audience around content. With brand voice and audience building and monetizing a business is easy.

Julie Fleischer Sr. Director Data Content Media Kraft Foods. What if you launched a business with nothing to sell and instead focused first on serving the needs of an audience, trusting that the selling part would come later? Crazy or crazy brilliant? I'd say the latter. Because in today's world, you should serve before selling.
