Comment manager un projet ? Jean-Jacques Néré, 2012 Depuis les grands projets internationaux industriels d'infrastructure de caractère socio-politiques jusqu'aux mini-projets de lancement de produits menés au sein d'une PME la gamme des projets devant être gérés de façon professionnelle est large Les chefs de projet se multiplient la culture de gestion de projets semble se répandre dans toute notre vie professionnelle Cependant on constate bien souvent que les nominations de chefs de projets au moins pour les projets modestes ne sont accompagnées d'aucune formation aux techniques et principes fondamentaux du management de projets Comme si ces notions étaient intuitives et que tout cadre d'entreprise les maîtrisait spontanément Or en dehors même des techniques proprement dites qui ne sauraient en aucun cas se limiter la pratique de logiciels spécialisés le management de projets fait appel des qualités particulières de travail en équipe sens des responsabilités devoir d'alerte assertivité qui doivent être combinés pour permettre son harmonieuse réalisation Bien plus la coexistence de multiples projets qui puisent dans les mêmes ressources essentiellement humaines et financières font qu'inévitablement se pose le problème de leurs priorités lorsque les circonstances font que certains doivent être revus rattachés voire arrêtés Bien peu de structures de décision ad hoc ont été prévues au sein des organisations qui mènent des projets et les Directions Générales sont bien peu préparées à prendre de façon pertinente ce genre de décisions difficiles Enfin le management de projets tel qu'il est connu dans le monde occidental pré suppose une certaine forme de culture qui n'est pas universelle Dans nos sociétés au sein desquelles il est pourtant nécessaire la généralisation de pratiques telles que l'autocontrôle le devoir d'alerte l'assertivité ne va pas de soi Que dire de l'implantation de projets dans des civilisations qui en sont a priori loignées C'est cet ensemble de questions que se propose d'aborder cet ouvrage Il s'adresse aux chefs de projets actuels ou potentiels bien entendu mais aussi aux dirigeants devant prendre des décisions d'arbitrage entre les projets qui sont menés au sein de leurs organisations
