In Search of Fat Bewketu Seyoum, 2012-06-01 In Search of Fat is a translation of some of Bewketu Seyoum's popular poems from Amharic. The poems in this bilingual edition mark his distinctive humorous but cutting style in predominantly short form. The translations with input from the author aim to replicate in English the energy and vitality of his voice. Bewketu Seyoum is a popular young Ethiopian poet and writer from Mankusa in Gojjam north west of Addis Ababa. His father is an English teacher and his mother comes from a family of Orthodox priests. He has published three collections of Amharic poetry, two novels and two CDs of humorous stories. His short punchy poems full of warmth and humour address all the important issues of modern life including poverty, freedom, religion and love. In 2008 Bewketu was awarded the prize for Young Writer of the Year by the President of Ethiopia. In June 2012 he will represent Ethiopia at the Poetry Parnassus festival in London.

Songs We Learn from Trees Chris Beckett, 2020-05-28 This is the very first anthology of Ethiopian poetry in English, packed with all the energy, wit and heartache of a beautiful country and language. From folk and religious poems, warrior boasts, praises of women and kings and modern plumbing through a flowering of literary poets in the twentieth century, right up to thirty of the most exciting contemporary Amharic poets working both inside and outside the country. These poems ask what it means to be Ethiopian today, part of a young, fast-growing economy, heirs to the one African state which was never colonised but beset by deep political, ethnic and moral problems. Finalist for the 2021 Glenna Luschei Prize for African Poetry.

ILO Washington Focus, 1990      Addis Ababa Noir Maaza Mengiste, 2020-08-04 Addis Ababa is a sprawling melting pot of cultures where rich and poor live side by side in relative harmony until they don't. Maaza Mengiste's story Dust Ash Flight has won the 2021 Edgar Award for Best Short Story presented by the Mystery Writers of America. Several of the 14 stories here, most of them striking and accomplished, involve post-revolution loss, guilt and revenge. Some are surreal, fitting for a culture where, as Mengiste writes in her introduction, there are men who live in the mountains of Ethiopia and can turn into hyenas. Washington Post Akashic Books continues its award-winning series of original noir anthologies launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir. Each book comprises all new stories, each one set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the respective city. Brand new stories by Maaza Mengiste, Adam Reta Mahtem Shiferraw, Linda Yohannes Sulaiman, Addonia Meron Hadero, Mikael Awake, Lelissa Girma, Rebecca Fisseha, Solomon Hailemariam, Girma T. Fantaye, Teferi Nigussie, Tafa Hannah Giorgis and Bewketu Seyoum. From the introduction by Maaza Mengiste: What marks life in Addis Ababa are the starkly different realities coexisting in one place. It's a growing city taking shape beneath the fraught weight of history, myth and memory. It is a heady mix. It can also be disorienting, and it is in this space that the stories of Addis Ababa Noir reside. These are not gentle stories. They cross into forbidden territories and traverse the damaged terrain of the human heart. The characters in these pages are complicated, worthy of our judgment as much as they somehow manage to elude it. The writers have each discovered their own ways to get us to lean in while forcing us to grit our teeth as we draw closer. Despite the varied and distinct voices in these pages no single book can contain all of the wonderful intriguing vexing complexities of Addis Ababa But what you will read are stories by some of Ethiopia s most talented writers living in the country and abroad Each of them considers the many ways that myth and truth and a country s dark edges come together to create something wholly original and unsettling Summary of World Broadcasts British Broadcasting Corporation. the past decade the world reached the point of becoming more urban than not as the majority of people on the planet now live not in small towns or villages but in provincial national and global cities Scholars have long been fascinated by so called global cities world cities and the urban engines of the global economy James H Spencer argues however that such an emphasis misses the central fact that urbanization goes well beyond the usual suspects of New York Tokyo London and Shanghai The author charts urbanization across the Global South and North resulting in what he describes as a planetary global urban ecosystem This concept that challenges us to realize that in daily life their similar physical and social ecosystems that make cities more understandable to each other than to their own rural hinterlands Spencer s vivid case studies of Addis Ababa Ho Chi Minh City Honolulu and New York draw out the commonalities of our intertwined built and social environments and how they express a shared humanity across continents and cultures Africana
