Introduction

Why Do Bible Study?

The Bible is Inspired by God

All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16)

The word "inspiration" in 2 Timothy 3:16 is in the original Greek theopneustos (theopneustos, which literally means "God-breathed"). For Scripture to be inspired by God requires that it originated from God's breath or that it is the Word of God. Indeed, the term "Word of God" is used synonymously with the Scriptures throughout the Bible (e.g. John 1:14).

The Mechanics of Inspiration

There are numerous theories of how inspiration took place, including the following:

- Verbal inspiration – Human authors were inspired in such a way that God or the Holy Spirit dictated their every word.
- Special inspiration – Human authors themselves are inspired by God in the same way God inspires any Christian today through the ministry of the Holy Spirit.
- Conceptual inspiration – God inspired human authors with the general concepts of the message, but left the words and details to the author.
- Verbal inspiration – God inspired human authors with each word, superintending over the details.
- Dictated dictation – Human authors just took dictation from God as he spoke.

The best description of the process is found in 2 Peter 1:21, as he describes the process of prophesy being provided to human authors:

For no prophesy was ever made by will or by human will, but men moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God (2 Peter 1:21)

Prophetic writers, then, did not dictate or write a word from God, but simply suffered what could be said as from God as the Holy Spirit moved them along. This illustrates direct dictation, as it is the most often quoted. Furthermore, this illustrates verbal inspiration, as it has a divine origin. Special inspiration would mean the scriptures had no more authority than any "holy writing" system, which would contradict the authority attributed to Scriptures by Jesus and Paul.

This found in both conceptual and verbal inspiration. Both suggest that human authors were involved in the writing, and that the individual permission and action of the authors were through in the process. However, God controlled the human author to write, and he chooses how
