Readings In Planning Theory Wordpress:

Planning Urban Places Mary Ganis, 2015-06-19 Urban change is often difficult because we are dealing with people's elusive notions of place and perception time and change Urban design and planning in a changing urban context so that it remains relevant for people is elusive because the idea of place is embedded in memory and identity but whose memory and whose identity This book seeks to understand the urban change dynamic so that the planning of urban places aligns with the dynamic of people's perception of place Planning Urban Places examines the premise that building cities is a concrete business surrounded by a shifting context It discusses the notion of urban design and placemaking from the perspective of place perception and cognitive psychology place philosophy and human geography It also considers network theory to help illustrate the self-organising paradigm of small world network theory for planning urban places

Property, Planning and Protest: The Contentious Politics of Housing Supply Quintin Bradley, 2023-03-17 The struggle for the right to housing is a battle over property rights and land use For housing to be provided as a human need land must be recognised as a common right Property Planning and Protest is a compelling new investigation into public opposition to housing and real estate development Its innovative materialist approach is grounded in the political economy of land value and it recognises the conflict between communities and real estate capital as a struggle over land and property rights Property Planning and Protest is about a social movement struggling for democratic representation in land use decisions The amenity groups it describes champion a democratic plan-led system that allocates land for social and environmental goals Situating this movement in a history of land reform and common rights this book sets out a persuasive new vision of democratic planning and affordable housing for all

Readings in Planning Theory Susan S. Fainstein, James DeFilippis, 2015-10-19 Featuring updates and revisions to reflect rapid changes in an increasingly globalized world Readings in Planning Theory remains the definitive resource for the latest theoretical and practical debates within the field of planning theory Represents the newest edition of the leading text in planning theory that brings together the essential classic and cutting edge readings Features 20 completely new readings out of 28 total for the fourth edition Introduces and defines key debates in planning theory with editorial materials and readings selected both for their accessibility and importance Systematically captures the breadth and diversity of planning theory and puts issues into wider social and political contexts without assuming prior knowledge of the field

Making Use of Deleuze in Planning Gareth Abrahams, 2016-10-04 Making Use of Deleuze in Planning translates and re-creates some of Gilles Deleuze's most abstract philosophical concepts to form a new practicable planning assessment tool It shows what his philosophy can do for planning theory as well as planning assessment practice and in doing so sets out a pragmatic approach to Deleuzian studies one that helps form bridges between ontological problems and the problems found in professional practice It also breaks new ground in assessment methodology by challenging the essentialist ideas underpinning assessment methods like BREEAM and setting out and testing a new form of non-essentialist assessment

named SIAM The book argues that Deleuze's philosophy can be made useful to planning as long as one is prepared to adapt and re create his key ontological concepts to respond to the specific demands of the field Heritage, Crafting Communities and Urban Transformation Debapriya Chakrabarti,2023-10-06 This book emphasises the need to empower marginalised communities to contribute to decision making processes within policy realms It contributes to ongoing debates in the social sciences about infrastructure rights and citizenship and it throws insight on human infrastructure interactions in the informal neighbourhoods of the global South The book delves into the complexities of caste gender class and political identities and affiliations associated with the multiple factors of inclusion and exclusion particularly in the case of access to infrastructure in informal settlements in urban areas with an added productive function This book is about how this historic inner city situated religious idol crafting community is transforming due to factors including access to physical and social infrastructure local governance policies sociopolitical hierarchies and complexities of informal tenure Drawing on sociocultural norms and values of idol crafting practices it documents analyses and presents the networks and relations of the neighbourhood through a spatial and material lens Findings contribute to understanding how traditional practices of a crafting community are adapting appropriating producing and reshaping informal spaces in Kumartuli The book is aimed at academic audiences across the world researching creative industries Kolkata's regeneration agenda and cultural tourism It will be of interest to the wide disciplines of Urban Studies Development Studies Architecture and Planning and Culture and Tourism Studies

Empowering Municipal Sustainability Alexandra Reed Lajoux,2021-11-08 Amidst growing awareness over the past half century that human activity threatens our natural environment many of the world's largest cities have played a role in the sustainability movement as seen by such initiatives as Day of Cities sponsored by the United Nations And now local governments in towns and smaller cities are beginning to play a more prominent role in the green movement This book inspired by the author's own experience as a citizen activist and local candidate is a guide for local governments and citizens wishing to launch sustainability campaigns and programs that make a lasting difference in our world Alexandra Reed Lajoux addresses the popular green city topic but focuses on smaller municipalities which are more numerous than big cities and in greater need of guidance With a visionary foreword by Ben G Price National Organizer Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund and author of How Wealth Rules the World the book discusses the most critical environmental economic and engineering realities of municipal life and leadership in our times ranging from rights of nature to rollback tax rates to green infrastructure to gentrification It will appeal to a broad range of town or city government employees and elected officials as well as local activists contemplating the issues of managing and funding sustainability that all localities worldwide face at some level

Transportation Engineering (Theory & Practice) Raji A K, K K Babu,2025-06-01 Globalization Development and Social Justice Ann El Khoury,2015-03-27 Are there existing alternatives to corporate globalization What are the prospects for and commonalities between communities and movements such as Occupy the World Social Forum and alternative economies Globalization Development and Social Justice advances the proposition that another globalization is not only possible but already exists It demonstrates that there are multiple pathways towards development with social justice and argues that enabling propositional agency rather than oppositional agency such as resistance is a more effective alternative to neoliberal globalization El Khoury develops a theory of infraglobalization that emphasizes creative constitution not just contestation of global and local processes The book features case studies and examples of diverse economic practice and innovative emergent political forms from the Global South and North These case studies are located in the informal social economy and community development as well as everyday practices from prefigurative politics to community cooperatives and participatory planning This book makes an important contribution to debates about the prospects for and practices of a transformative grassroots globalization and to critical debates about globalization and development strategies It will be of interest to students and scholars of international relations globalization social movement studies political and economic geography sociology anthropology and development studies Readings in Planning Theory Susan S.

Fainstein, Scott Campbell, 2012 The third edition of the highly successful Readings in Planning Theory continues its well established role in defining the most current debates within the field of planning theory identifying its boundaries presenting the works that constitute its central focus and addressing the central issues that face planners as theorists and practitioners While maintaining an emphasis on developing an understanding of the process and substance of planning within real world constraints readings in the new edition reflect many of the developments and rapidly changing dynamics of today's globalized world Editorial updates and the addition of some 13 new readings place an emphasis on emergent themes in planning theory including changing approaches to modernism urbanism communicative action power inequality and justice in the city A major new section is devoted to planning in a globalized world with readings addressing the impact of theories of globalization and of theories of development on planning theory Essays continue to address the role of planning in developing the good city and region within the constraints of a capitalist political economy and a democratic political system while seeking explanations and guides to planning practice based on analyses of the political economies of the U S U K and other nations Building on its established success and well earned reputation the third edition of Readings in Planning Theory is the definitive work in this increasingly important field Readings in Planning Theory Richard E.
