The Lesser Histories Jan Z brana,2022-06-01 From the eighth floor of a tower block in Central Europe Jan Z brana surveyed the twentieth century He had been exiled from his own life by Communism His parents were imprisoned their health broken and he was not allowed to study languages in college Refusing both to rebel outright or to cave in he thought of himself as a dead man walking To all those who keep asking me to do things for them I sometimes feel like saying But I m dead I died long ago Why do you keep treating me as if I were one of the living Yet during some of Europe s most difficult years he wrote The Lesser Histories a collection of sixty four sonnets that range through themes of age sex and political repression a radiant testament to his times The lines are emptied both of personal pathos and political stridency Often Z brana s own voice segues into those of poets he had translated over the years leaving only a bare shimmer of subjectivity humorous oblique pained with which to view his own works and days The poems document a splendid and bitter isolation and are immersed in the humor hatreds and loves of the everyday Published in Czech in the ill fated year of 1968 they subsequently fell into neglect After the fall of Communism in 1989 Z brana s collected poems and selected diaries were published in Czech and he was acclaimed as a major twentieth century writer Now with this collection he can begin to reach English language readers for the first time
