Das Brecht-Jahrbuch Tom Kuhn, David Barnett, Theodore F. Rippey, 2018 The leading publication on Brecht his work and topics of interest to him this annual volume documents the International Brecht Society's 2016 symposium Recycling Brecht Published for the International Brecht Society by Camden House the Brecht Yearbook is the central scholarly forum for discussion of Brecht's life and work and of topics of particular interest to him especially the politics of literature and of theater in a global context It includes a wide variety of perspectives and approaches and like Brecht himself is committed to the concept of the use value of literature theater and theory Volume 42 features a selection of the papers given and protocols of the events held at the International Brecht Society's Recycling Brecht symposium at St Hugh's College Oxford in June 2016 The theme of recycling is understood both as a description of Brecht's own creative practice and as an activity applied to his works by others The volume includes keynote papers by Hans Thies Lehmann and Amal Allana on Brecht's reception of Antigone and on the reception and recycling of Brecht in India respectively Other papers are on a wide range of topics from Brecht's own recycling of Shakespeare and others through the reception of his own works in a range of contexts and by later writers to contemporary works that may be understood as post Brechtian The final section introduced by an extended interview with American playwright Tony Kushner documents additional creative responses to the theme Volume co editors Tom Kuhn and David Barnett are respectively Professor of Twentieth Century German Literature at the University of Oxford and Professor of Theatre at the University of York Managing Editor Theodore F Rippey is Associate Professor of German at Bowling Green State University

Dramaturgies of War Anselm Heinrich, Ann-Christine Simke, 2023-12-01 This book examines the institutional contexts of dramaturgical practices in the changing political landscape of 20th century Germany Through wide ranging case studies it discusses the way in which operationalised modes of action legal frameworks and an established profession have shaped dramaturgical practice and thus links to current debates around the institutional turn in theatre and performance studies German theatre represents a rich and well chosen field as it is here where the role of the dramaturg was first created and where dramaturgy played a significantly politicised role in the changing political systems of the 20th century The volume represents an important addition to a growing field of work on dramaturgy by contributing to a historical contextualisation of current practice In doing so it understands dramaturgy not only as a process which occurs in rehearsal rooms and writers studies but one that has far wider institutional and political implications

Open Wounds Martin Kagel, David Z. Saltz, 2022-02-14 This volume collects original essays on Hungarian German playwright and screenwriter George Tabori 1914-2007 and his remarkable contributions to the stage Tabori a Jewish refugee and a truly transnational author was best known for his work in New York theater that irreverently explored the Jewish experience particularly the Holocaust Although his illustrious career spanned a century two continents several languages and a variety of literary genres Tabori's work has received scant attention in American letters in spite of its significance for U S theater and Holocaust studies Until Tabori most dramas about the Holocaust were either rooted in American domestic realism striving to create a strong empathetic connection between the audience and Holocaust victims or featured an unembellished documentary style Tabori staked out a third position beyond realism and documentation The volume brings together the voices of international scholars to provide a comprehensive introduction to Tabori s theater as well as in depth analyses of his work discussing all of his major plays Individual essays address Tabori s postdramatic theater in relation to sacrificial ritual performance studies and post humanist approaches to the contemporary stage as well as performance aspects of his productions questions of ethics and aesthetics raised by his theater and his plays relation to Holocaust representation in popular culture The Classical Tradition Anthony Grafton, Glenn W.
