

Case Studies – Social Work

Case study : Jessica

Jessica is 11 years old and lives with her parents. She has cerebral palsy and is a wheelchair user. Jessica has very limited verbal communication and is completely dependent upon other people for all her daily living needs. She attends a local comprehensive school where she receives 1:1 support. Jessica has found it difficult getting to know the other children in the school and is very unhappy there and cries each day before going to school.

Case study : Geraint

Geraint aged 14 has been arrested at 1 a.m. for criminal damage of a property after a complaint by his parents. He is very subdued and had rejected the offer of a solicitor. A social worker has been called to the police station to act as an appropriate adult as neither of his parents have come with him. During the questioning Geraint gets very upset and said that he only smashed the pictures and doors at the house after his parents kept on and on about how he had never fit into the family properly, about how disappointed they were with his continued poor results at school, and that they wished they had never adopted him. They have said they do not want him to return to the house.
