Training in the Motor Vehicle Repair and Sales Sector in Belgium European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training,1994 An international team of researchers studied the following aspects of training in Belgium s motor vehicle repair and sales sector structure and characteristics institutional and social context relationship to Belgium s overall labor market changing structural economic and organizational conditions and training and recruitment and relationship to Belgium s education system Data were obtained from a review of government social and labor employment statistics and from case studies of the four firms Peugeot Talbot Volvo Ford and Mercedes Each case study included a general profile of the company its personnel management and vocational policies and its provisions for continuing ongoing training Belgium s educational system was found to contain at least four different channels by which individuals can prepare for jobs in the sector. Most public-private collaborative training efforts were focused on at-risk groups. In total, training activities within the sector, the initiatives taken by motor vehicle manufacturers played the most important role. Training initiatives and policies varied widely by company. Collaborations between different manufacturers appeared to represent a very important option for the future, and self-study was increasing in importance. Most manufacturers invested in their own training infrastructures; however, training was also contracted out. Fifteen tables are included.

Guy Kawasaki, Chief Evangelist of Canva and author of The Art of the Start 2.0. I can't remember having read a more compelling example of how great luxury brands aren't just made but are nurtured. Driven to Delight offers essential lessons on the direct and undeniable relationship between how much you value and respect your customers and how they reward you for that consideration. Mike Jackson, Chairman, CEO and President, AutoNation. Joseph Michelli's latest book is a masterful roadmap for transforming the relationship between leaders, employees, and the customers they serve. Tom Rath, author of StrengthsFinder 2.0 and Are You Fully Charged? The revolution in customer care that MBUSA is currently undertaking is rivaled only by the revolution that Mercedes began with the invention of the automobile. Dr. Michelli's book provides the most comprehensive look at how MBUSA is undertaking and succeeding at this transformative initiative. Alex Gellert, CEO, Merkle Partners. Kudos to Steve Cannon and Joseph Michelli. Steve is the rare CEO who is brutally honest in a public forum about his own iconic organization's growing pains. Joseph's ability to present a compelling case study is unparalleled. Jeanne Bliss, President, CustomerBliss and bestselling author of Chief Customer Officer 2.0 and I Love You More Than My Dog. Mercedes-Benz's story demonstrates the leadership and commitment that's required to transform customer experience within a large organization. The book does a great job of capturing how the company engaged all of its employees and partners on a journey to deliver upon its brand promise, which required much more than just designing great cars.
