

Poultry waste management in developing countries

Charles Michael Williams, North Carolina State University, Department of Poultry Science, Raleigh NC, United States of America

INTRODUCTION

Waste from any large animal producing, quality food product that has exceeded the most strict regulatory standards, and perhaps including and including non-food products (such as the protein and other fractions of poultry production) is a waste. The waste is a by-product of the production process, and its management is a key to the success of the production process.
