

Prepare for sleep during the day

The elements of a good night's sleep start long before you go to bed. For a more refreshing rest, try to adopt some of these healthy sleep habits during the day.

Stick to a Sleep Schedule

Go to sleep and wake up at the same time every day. This reinforces your circadian rhythm to promote healthy sleep-wake cycles.

Write Down Your Worries

Don't take stress to bed. Research shows that writing down your worries early in the day can help you fall asleep faster at bedtime.

Create a Healthy Sleep Environment

Your room should be a relaxing, creating a clean, cozy retreat for sleep may help your mind switch off more easily at night.

Avoid Stimulants & Limit Alcohol

Caffeine should not be consumed four to six hours before bedtime. Limit alcohol as drinking in excess has been linked to poor sleep.

Exercise & Get Outside

30-minutes of moderate exercise and sunshine during the day makes it easier to sleep at night—and give you a serotonin boost, too!

and sleep more soundly at night

Want to wake up feeling refreshed? When you're ready to head to bed, follow these tips to improve the quality and quantity of your sleep at night.

Don't Head to Bed When You're Not Tired

An early night might sound nice, but don't force sleep. Heading to bed before you're tired may lead to sleep anxiety and insomnia.

Create a Daily 'Wind-Down' Routine

Hyperarousal (an active or "busy" mind) is the main reason people with insomnia can't sleep. Make time to switch off before bed.

Block Out Noise & Light

A quiet and dark room is essential for a good night's sleep. Light exposure and noise can interfere with sleep quantity and quality.

Make Your Bed a Sleep & Intimacy Zone

Leave work at your desk and meals in the kitchen. Your brain should only associate bed with sleep and intimate activities.

Don't Take Your Phone or Other Devices to Bed

Unplug at night. Blue light delays the release of sleep-inducing melatonin, increases alertness, and sets back your internal sleep clock.

Bible Society Record, 1894 The Jael Finishing School for Ladies Jaime Hope McArdle, 2021-10-06 Inspired by the story of Jael and Deborah in the book of Judges, Jaime Hope McArdle shares her personal journey to a life of purpose and freedom through finding identity as a daughter of the Creator King. She takes on the old stories and passages of the Bible with fresh eyes, asking how they impact her life today and challenges her readers to consider becoming freedom fighters, beginning in their own lives and then becoming a force for transformation in the world around them. With chapters titled "A Danger to the Gates of Hell" and "Freedom Fighter," Jaime uncovers the spiritual battle raging under the surface in the world around us and challenges women to reconsider what being in prison looks like and to find the courage to try the door because it cannot be locked. In "The Healing and Daughter of a King," she walks through revelation of a true identity that is the right of every woman who will choose this day. This new identity defies the cultural norms for women with "The Greatest Love of All" and calls women to see their power is not in becoming more like men or in manipulation through sexuality. She encourages the power to change the operating systems that direct everyday life and challenges to accept a new assignment to see life as a daily adventure to bringing love, forgiveness, grace.
