NIJ Special Report, A Resource for Evaluating Child Advocacy Centers, July 2004, 2004 A Resource for Evaluating Child Advocacy Centers Shelly L. Jackson, 2004 Children's Rights Education in Diverse Classrooms Lee Jerome, Hugh Starkey, 2021-04-08 With PISA tables accountability and performance management pulling educators in one direction and the understanding that education is a social process embedded in cultural contexts tailored to meet the needs and challenges of individuals and communities in another it is easy to end up in seeing teachers as positioned as opponents to the system Jerome and Starkey argue that the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child UNCRC 1989 can provide a pragmatic starting point for educators to challenge some of these unsettling trends in a way which does not set up unnecessary opposition with policy makers They review the evidence from international evaluations surveys and case studies about practice in human rights and child right education before exploring the key principles of transformative and experiential education to offer a robust theoretical framework that can guide the development of child rights education They also draw out practical implications and outline a series of teaching and learning approaches that are values informed aligned with children s rights and focused on quality learning Group Filial Therapy Louise Guerney, Virginia Ryan, 2013-04-28 In Group Filial Therapy GFT therapists train parents to conduct play sessions with their children This book provides an accessible guide to the theory and practice of GFT and for the first time offers step by step guidelines for implementing the GFT program developed by Dr Guerney the co creator of Filial Therapy Demanding Good Governance Mary McNeil, Carmen Malena, 2010-06-23 Accountability is the cornerstone of good governance Unless public officials can be held to account then critical benefits associated with good governance such as social justice poverty reduction and development remain elusive The impacts of non responsive and unaccountable governance are perhaps most harshly felt by the citizens of Africa where corruption and governance failures are broadly acknowledged as a principal obstacle to the achievement Over the past decade a range of social accountability practices such as participatory budgeting independent budget analysis participatory monitoring of public expenditure and citizen evaluation of public services have been experimented with in many Africa countries Their outcomes and lessons have thus far received little attend and documentation This volume aims to make a contribution towards filling this gap by describing and analyzing a selection of social accountability initiatives from seven Sub Saharan countries Reforming Pedagogy in Cambodia Takayo Ogisu, 2022-01-08 This book presents a sociocultural account of logic or a pedagogy that governs Cambodian education from policy making to classroom practices In so doing it seeks to not only provide an introduction to Cambodian education but also to help readers understand the complexities involved in reforming educational practices by drawing on an ethnographic multi level case study of an ongoing pedagogical reform policy The book reveals what is actually taking place in today s Cambodian classrooms and how actors view their own practices in response to the new pedagogy Importantly the book situates

Cambodian pedagogical reform efforts amid the global wave of student centered pedagogies and sheds new light on the political economy of educational policy making and policy implementation along a global local axis
