Leading Issues in ICT Evaluation Egon Berghout, 2012-01-01 ICT evaluation is a perennial issue and it is likely to remain so There are a number of different reasons for this and one of the most important is that it is no trivial matter to establish the real costs and the benefits of effectively employing ICT in an organisation Another reason why ICT evaluation is regarded with such importance is the ever growing size of the investment required to set up and deliver innovative information systems It has long since been the case that the sum invested in ICT has outstripped the rest of the capital investment budget in a large number of organisations Perhaps because of the amount of investment in ICT has been so great we have made much progress in our understanding of the issues related to the costs and the benefits involved with ICT evaluation. Leading Issues in ICT Evaluation Research provides a number of important insights into this complex issue. The book is of value to a wide range of individuals working with ICT including academics, their students and other researchers as well as consultants and practicing ICT professionals. 204 pages. Library & Information Science Abstracts, 2008

The New Walford Guide to Reference Resources Ray Lester, 2005. The New Walford highlights the best resources to use when undertaking a search for accurate and relevant information saving you precious time and effort. For those looking for a selective and evaluative reference resource that really delivers on its promise look no further. In addition to print sources The New Walford naturally covers an extensive range of e reference sources such as digital databanks digital reference services electronic journal collections meta search engines networked information services open archives resource discovery services and websites of premier organizations in both the public and private sectors. But rather than supplying a list of all available known resources as a web search engine might The New Walford subject specialists have carefully selected and evaluated available resources to provide a definitive list of the most appropriate and useful. With an emphasis on quality and sustainability the subject specialists have been careful to assess the differing ways that information is framed and communicated in different subject areas. As a result the resource evaluations in each subject area are prefaced by an introductory overview of the structure of the relevant literature. This ensures that The New Walford is clear easy to use and intuitive. Publisher
