Relationship Theory and Business Markets Michael

Kleinaltenkamp, Michael Ehret, 2006 The Handbook of Technology Management, Supply Chain Management, Marketing and Advertising, and Global Management Hossein Bidgoli, 2010 The discipline of technology management focuses on the scientific engineering and management issues related to the commercial introduction of new technologies. Although more than thirty U.S. universities offer PhD programs in the subject, there has never been a single comprehensive resource dedicated to technology management. The Handbook of Technology Management fills that gap with coverage of all the core topics and applications in the field. Edited by the renowned Doctor Hossein Bidgoli, the three volumes here include all the basics for students, educators, and practitioners.

Managing Services Alan Nankervis, Yuki Miyamoto, Ruth Taylor, John Milton-Smith, 2005-10-27 The rapid increase in global services during the last few decades is without doubt one of the most challenging social, cultural, political, and especially economic forces of our time. Services have supplanted agriculture, manufacturing, and resources as the primary source of international competitive advantage in many countries, providing wealth, employment, and almost unlimited future opportunities for growth, whether in traditional or more innovative forms. This book explores the strategic management of services through an Integrated Services Management Model, which links operational, marketing, financial, and human resource management functions within a broad and diverse collection of international, regional, and local service contexts. It contains numerous case examples, student projects, and exercises designed to illustrate common problems and innovative approaches, with a particular focus on the Asia Pacific and Australasian regions.

The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Behaviour in Hospitality and Tourism Saurabh Kumar Dixit, 2017-04-07 Consumer behaviour is one of the most explored topics in tourism and hospitality marketing, interchangeably denoted by the terms traveller behaviour, tourist behaviour, or guest behaviour. Consumer behaviour acts as an origin for every tourism and hospitality marketing activity. It offers an understanding of why people tend to choose certain products or services and what sort of factors influence them in making their decision. The decision process of buying tourism products or services takes time because they are mostly intangible in nature, due to which there are many risks involved in their buying process. The Routledge Handbook of Consumer Behaviour in Hospitality and Tourism aims to explore and critically examine current debates, critical reflections of contemporary ideas, controversies, and pertinent queries relating to the rapidly expanding discipline of consumer behaviour in hospitality and tourism. The Handbook offers a platform for dialogue across disciplinary and national boundaries and areas of study through its diverse coverage. It is divided into six parts: Part I offers an overview of consumer behaviour; Part II focuses on the service quality perspectives of consumer behaviour; Part III deliberates on customer satisfaction and consumer behaviour linkages; Part IV explores the re-patronage behaviour of consumers; Part V addresses the vital issues concerning online consumer behaviour; and Part VI elaborates upon other emerging paradigms of consumer behaviour. Although there is no dearth of empirical studies on different viewpoints of consumer behaviour, there is a scarcity of literature providing conceptual information. The present Handbook is organised to offer a comprehensive theoretical body of knowledge narrating consumer behaviour especially for hospitality and tourism businesses and operations. It attempts to fill this research gap by offering a globalised volume comprising chapters organised using both practical and academic approaches. This Handbook is essential reading for students, researchers and academics of Hospitality as well as those of Tourism, Marketing, International Business and Consumer Behaviour.
