Robbins, 1996 Includes bibliographical references and indexes Essentials of organizational behavior/ Stephen P. Robbins Stephen P. Robbins, Organizational Behavior Stephen P. Robbins, 1991 Essentials of Organizational Behavior Stephen P. Robbins, 2003 This text features the relevant topics in current organizational behavior such as TQM reengineering technology empowerment declining employee loyalty the Myers Briggs Type Indicator virtual and boundaryless organizations 360 degree performance appraisals diversity globalization and ethics The introduction condenses the essentials of the field into a tightly focused presentation With the use of examples this text covers work life balance group demography team effectiveness model flextime and telecommuting and e organizations as well as issues such as emotions trust work life balance workplace spirituality and knowledge management It integrates the themes of globalization diversity and ethics throughout the text rather than presenting them in stand alone chapters enhancing students understanding of the impact these issues have at each stage of the organizational behavior process It also considers the nature of employee recognition programs linking recognition programs and reinforcement theory employee recognition programs in practice Organizational Behaviour by Pearson 18e Stephen P. Robbins, Timothy A. Judge, Neharika Vohra, Long considered the standard for all organizational behavior textbooks the Eighteenth Edition continues its tradition of making current relevant research available to students in the language that they understand While maintaining its hallmark features Organizational Behavior O. Jeff Harris, Sandra J. Hartman, 2001 This text uses realistic case examples discussion questions and self tests to illustrate principles of workplace psychology Each chapter begins by posing a difficult work situation which may be a conflict a motivation problem or an issue of diversity then goes on to discuss principles and theories that apply to the case covering areas of ethics problem employees and organizational culture as well as neglected areas such as the physical atmosphere of the workplace the effects of new technologies on workers and workplace gossip Harris teaches management at the University of Louisiana Monroe Hartman at the University of New Orleans Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Human Resource Management Practices in Selected Ethiopian Private Companies: A Study to Increase Employee Productivity in Ethiopia Dirk J. van Wasbeek,2004-09-24 This dissertation examines how human resources are managed at selected Ethiopian private companies how Ethiopian human resource management practice is evolving and how it can be improved The examination is qualitative and exploratory since no comparative research on human resource management has yet been conducted at Ethiopian profit or non profit organizations An understanding of Ethiopian human resource management practice makes it possible to improve Ethiopian human resource management practice and thus to increase employee productivity The study took place at four manufacturing and four service companies in Addis Ababa all representative of their sector The research claim is that Ethiopian human resource management practices differ from human resource management practices in the West due to differences in cultural factors economic systems political systems and legal and industrial relations For this reason Ethiopia s culture politics economy and legal and industrial relations have been analyzed The main finding of this study is that the importance of human resource management is not uniformly understood at all the case study companies Although the multinational companies based in Ethiopia see their human resources as the companies most important asset as human capital the local companies generally do not The fact that respondents claim that Ethiopia has limited experience in industrialization might explain why human resource management in Ethiopia is rudimentary and still has a long way to go With this dissertation the researcher wants to contribute to improving Ethiopian human resource management practice Moreover this dissertation may be used as a framework for similar research in other sectors or for more specific in depth research This dissertation may also serve as a knowledge base for company managers business consultants academics and government officials of countries with a national culture similar to Ethiopia s for example Kenya Tanzania and Zambia countries undergoing or which have undergone a recent transition to a free market economy and countries facing similar macro economic developments
