Empower Your Inner Manager Ian R. Mackintosh, 2012-05 Competition for management jobs intensifies each year. If you are betting your financial welfare on your next management position and subsequent promotions, you will need to be better prepared to capture these increasingly scarce opportunities. In Empower Your Inner Manager, author Ian R. Mackintosh presents a quick guide to help you assess your management skills and create a personalized plan to improve those skills. A career and personal development tool, Empower Your Inner Manager offers a unique process that shows you how to target management positions, honestly assess the skills needed to optimize your candidacy, target only the skills needed to improve, develop a personalized plan to effect the necessary improvements, and reassess and revisit your growth needs as they evolve in the future. Building on more than thirty years of management experience in Silicon Valley, Mackintosh provides a hands-on personal guide to help you to optimize your career, stand out in today's ultra-competitive job market, and get the job you seek.

Supervision, Management, and Leadership John E. Tropman, 2020 Tropman synthesizes a broad range of classical organizational theory, contemporary research, and management experience to provide readers of Management and Leadership in Community Benefit Organizations an overview of the structure, culture, and function of organizations, the relationship between leadership and management in organizations, and the unique experience of manager-leaders who serve in the community benefit sector. Drawing on the literature of high-performing organizations, Tropman leads readers through phases of leadership management, explores efficient and effective leadership and management at each level, and offers a clear approach to developing competence regardless of position in the organization. He concludes with a thought-provoking section on helping organizations and managers/leaders maintain their edge and to adroitly navigate transition and change. Management, leadership, organization, community benefit organization, competence, non-profit, governance, high-performing organizations, high-quality decisions, change management. Provided by publisher.
