

Section 1 Notetaking Study Guide

Question to Think About As you read Section 1 in your textbook and take notes, keep this section focus question in mind: Why did the economy collapse after the stock market crash?

► Use this chart to record key information from the section. Some information has been filled in to get you started.

Hoover and the Crash
The Collapsing Economy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Problems with the U.S. economy started in the late 1920s. Major industries were declining, but stock prices were still increasing in value. This encouraged risky investments by margin buying. When stock prices started falling, margin buyers sold their stocks. The stock market crashed on October 19, 1929, known as Black Tuesday.
The Great Depression Begins
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Great Depression was a major economic and social disaster that affected the entire country. The Great Depression lasted 12 years and was triggered by the crash. One problem that caused the Great Depression was overproduction. Factories produced more goods than people could afford to buy. The Banking crisis also contributed to the Depression. Banks closed because farmers could not repay loans and from losses in the stock market crash. People had less money because they lost their jobs or lost savings.
The Human Cost
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> From 1929 to 1933, the unemployment rate went from 3 to 25 percent. The number of people without jobs was about 13 million. With little or no money, many people lacked adequate food, shelter, and clothing. The Great Depression was a time of widespread poverty and unemployment.
Hoover Responds
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> At first, President Hoover's advisers recommended doing nothing. They believed the Depression was temporary. Hoover's first measures encouraged businesses and local governments—but not the Federal government—to take the lead to help people. He also urged private business to set up breadlines and soup kitchens. As the Depression worsened, he created the public works program in 1932 to provide jobs to buy industries and local governments. The treatment of the Bonus Army further damaged Hoover's popularity.
