Directory of Best Indian Blogs | top Indian blogs in 2025

This is the latest (15th) edition of the Directory of Best Indian Blogs, published every year since 2010. The blog list has about three hundred blogs (in English) maintained by top Indian bloggers. 'Indian' in our context refers to 'maintained by an Indian' as well as 'focussed on India'.

Most of the blogs listed here are personal blogs. In addition, collective, corporate, media and institutional blogs find a place in case they are maintained as blogs and have good quality and regularity. We do not judge the blogs by their ideology. However, we do not include blogs that exceed the limits of societal norms, e.g. of nudity, religious discourse and political criticism.

Constraining Development Rachel Denae Thrasher, 2021-07-06 There is a fundamental mismatch between the global trade rules as they govern international economic behaviour and the political economic factors influencing domestic policy making. It comes as no surprise, therefore, that the multilateral trading system is in crisis. Countries are increasingly turning to bilateral and regional and mega-regional trade deals to push forward their trade agenda. There is far less consensus around these next-generation trade agreements, which reach into every aspect of domestic policy making. At this time, more than ever, policy makers, treaty negotiators, and scholars and students of international law need to understand the ways in which this growing regime of international trade and investment impacts regulatory decisions. This book demonstrates how seemingly disparate spheres of legal theory and practice—investment incentives, patent protection, land reform, etc.—are all linked together through the lens of international trade and investment, while also offering solutions in the form of new negotiating texts and country examples as a way forward toward a new multilateral trade and investment regime. Furthermore, each chapter identifies the regulatory challenges facing countries.
