Readings in Cultural Anthropology (First Edition) Robin Conley Riner, 2020-02-20 Readings in Cultural Anthropology Classic and Contemporary Perspectives provides students with an engaging and diverse collection of articles pertaining to cultural anthropology. The text encourages readers to compare traditional and modern readings on specific topics related to anthropology to better understand how the discipline has evolved into what it is today. The opening chapter presents students with an overview of cultural anthropology highlighting its unique characteristics and how it has changed over the years. The following chapters are divided into units. Unit One introduces core concepts and methods used in anthropology including culture. In Unit Two students read selections on a range of topics all relating to how people and groups have been defined and understood both within and outside anthropology. The final unit features readings on the institutions and practices that have contributed both to community building and inequality and violence across the world. Designed to help students discover new ways of understanding people as well as how their lives are shaped by sociocultural frameworks, Readings in Cultural Anthropology is an ideal resource for courses in cultural anthropology.

Readings in Cultural Anthropology and the Contemporary World Robert C. Ulin, 2021-05-08 Readings in Cultural Anthropology and the Contemporary World Critical Perspectives provides students with a carefully curated selection of articles that address the principal issues inclusive in the history of the discipline including globalization, gender, race, and ethnicity, kinship, language, and climate change. The anthology is divided into six units. The readings in Unit I address the history of the cultural anthropology discipline and its all important and central concept of culture. In Unit II students read selections that address race and ethnicity including historical and contemporary conceptions of race and the highly politicized US Mexico border. Unit III focuses on economic anthropology with readings that discuss women as economic agents and the economic factors and consequences associated with migrants. Unit IV is about political anthropology and includes two readings that criticize some of the stereotypes associated with leadership among Indigenous people. In Unit V the readings distinguish sex as biological for gender as social constructs and examine the reality of gender based violence. The final unit explores the world system and globalization including readings that cover a range of topics from the internet to the globalization of fast food to climate change. Readings in Cultural Anthropology and the Contemporary World is an ideal primary or supplementary resource for courses in cultural anthropology and anthropological theory.
