Reconstructing Architecture Thomas A. Dutton, Lian Hurst Mann, 1996 Reconstructing Architecture was first published in 1996 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions To create architecture is an inherently political act yet its nature as a social practice is often obscured beneath layers of wealth and privilege The contributors to this volume question architecture s complicity with the status quo moving beyond critique to outline the part architects are playing in building radical social movements and challenging dominant forms of power The making of architecture is instrumental in the construction of our identities our differences the world around us much of what we know of institutions the distribution of power social relations and cultural values is mediated by the built environment Historically architecture has constructed the environments that house the dominant culture Yet as the essays in Reconstructing Architecture demonstrate there exists a strong tradition of critical practice in the field one that attempts to alter existing social power relations Engaging the gap between modernism and postmodernism each chapter addresses an oppositional discourse that has developed within the field and then reconstructs it in terms of a new social project feminism social theory environmentalism cultural studies race and ethnic studies and critical theory The activists and scholars writing here provide a clarion call to architects and other producers of culture challenging them to renegotiate their political allegiances and to help reconstruct a viable democratic life in the face of inexorable forces driving economic growth destroying global ecology homogenizing culture and privatizing the public realm Reconstructing Architecture reformulates the role of architecture in society as well as its capacity to further a progressive social transformation Contributors Sherry Ahrentzen U of Wisconsin Milwaukee Bradford C Grant California Polytechnic State U San Luis Obispo Richard Ingersoll Rice U Margaret Soltan George Washington U Anthony Ward U of Auckland New Zealand Thomas A Dutton is an architect and professor of architecture at Miami University Ohio He is editor of Voices in Architectural Education 1991 and is associate editor of the Journal of Architectural Education Lian Hurst Mann is an architect and editor of Architecture California A founding member of the Labor Community Strategy Center in Los Angeles she is editor of its bilingual quarterly Ahora Now and a coauthor of Reconstructing Los Angeles from the Bottom Up 1993 An Introduction to Critical Management Research Mihaela L Kelemen, Nick Rumens, 2008-09-17 This book offers a lively and readable account of how scholars and students might engage with some of the more unusual critical theories associated with the critical management research project Supported by a wealth of empirical and theoretical material this book will introduce readers to the complex issues surrounding how to carry out critical management research rather than simply providing prescriptive answers Heather H pfl University of Essex Kelemen and Rumens have done management scholars a great service in reviewing a huge amount of disparate knowledge and compressing it into a succinct lively and provocative book on the current state of Critical Management Studies This is a must read for those both inside and outside CMS Keith Grint Cranfield University Management is a critical term for contemporary politics but getting to grips with managerialism requires research methods that can deal with contemporary and controversial topics This book provides the tools for that project and will be invaluable for scholars and students who wish to challenge the conservatism of management academy at the present time Martin Parker University of Leicester Why have certain theories shaped management research Where do research theory and practice meet if at all To ask these questions is to think critically about management research Mihaela L Kelemen and Nick Rumens explore the fundamentals of critical management theory and their influences on management research and in doing so offer the student an illuminating introduction to what is often a disparate and complex array of issues 10 expressive chapters examine theoretical foundations including those most often sidelined in mainstream management theory from postmodernism and deconstruction to American pragmatism along with methodological choices and the intellectual issues each of these presents Also provided is a timely consideration to the consequences and ethical concerns now inherent to any research issue
