Mediascapes New Patterns In Canadian Communication:

Mediascapes Paul Attallah, Leslie Regan Shade, 2006      The Routledge Companion to Media & Gender Cynthia Carter, Linda Steiner, Lisa McLaughlin, 2013-12-13 The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender offers a comprehensive examination of media and gender studies charting its histories investigating ongoing controversies and assessing future trends The 59 chapters in this volume written by leading researchers from around the world provide scholars and students with an engaging and authoritative survey of current thinking in media and gender research The Companion includes the following features With each chapter addressing a distinct concrete set of issues the volume includes research from around the world to engage readers in a broad array of global and transnational issues and intersectional perspectives Authors address a series of important questions that have consequences for current and future thinking in the field including postfeminism sexual violence masculinity media industries queer identities video games digital policy media activism sexualization docusoaps teen drama cosmetic surgery media Islamophobia sport telenovelas news audiences pornography and social and mobile media A range of academic disciplines inform exploration of key issues around production and policymaking representation audience engagement and the place of gender in media studies The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender is an essential guide to the central ideas concepts and debates currently shaping media and gender research

The Mass Media in Canada Mary Vipond, 2011-03-25 Canada has one of the most advanced mass media systems in the world which allows Canadians more access to American culture via television the movies and the Internet than ever before At the same time governments support the production and distribution of Canadian content to Canadians In this fully updated fourth edition Mary Vipond traces the rise of the traditional mass media in Canada explores the new media and discusses the influence of old mass media on new media Clearly written and persuasively argued The Mass Media in Canada demonstrates the huge challenges government face today in trying to influence media content and considers the troubling questions of who decides what we read watch and hear

Music in Range Brian Fauteux, 2015-11-02 Music in Range explores the history of Canadian campus radio highlighting the factors that have shaped its close relationship with local music and culture The book traces how campus radio practitioners have expanded stations from campus borders to surrounding musical and cultural communities by acquiring FM licenses and establishing community based mandates The culture of a campus station extends beyond its studio and into the wider community where it is connected to the local music scene within its broadcast range The book examines campus stations and local music in Vancouver Winnipeg and Sackville NB and highlights the ways that campus stations through music based programming their operational practices and the culture under which they operate produce alternative methods and values for circulating local and independent Canadian artists at a time when ubiquitous commercial media outlets do exactly the opposite Music in Range sheds light on a radio sector that is an integral component of Canada's musical and cultural fabric and positions campus radio as a worthy site of attention at a time when connectivity and sharing between musicians music fans and cultural intermediaries are increasingly shaping our experience of music radio and sound

The Media Gaze Augie Fleras, 2011-09-15 While Canada is known for its official commitment to diversity a close look at our media reveals that though they frequently promote superficial representations of difference they actually play a pivotal role in producing and reproducing the values structures and priorities of a predominantly straight white male society The Media Gaze exposes how newscasters advertisers filmmakers and television programmers attempt to co opt audiences into believing that media depictions entail neither prejudice nor perspective In truth the experiences of those who fall outside of the media s preferred populations are actively ignored or misrepresented In this timely audit of the Canadian mainstream media sociologist Augie Fleras draws on compelling case studies to explore the societal implications of the industry s hidden bias He also examines alternative forms of media and media literacy to present readers with tools to challenge the dominant agenda

Journalism in Crisis Mike Gasher, Colette Brin, Christine Crowther, Gretchen King, Errol Salamon, Simon Thibault, 2016-01-01 Journalism in Crisis addresses the concerns of scholars activists and journalists committed to Canadian journalism as a democratic institution and as a set of democratic practices The authors look within Canada and abroad for solutions for balancing the Canadian media ecology Public policies have been central to the creation and shaping of Canada s media system and rather than wait for new technologies or economic models the contributors offer concrete recommendations for how public policies can foster journalism that can support democratic life in twenty first century Canada Their work which includes new theoretical perspectives and valuable discussions of journalism practices in public private and community media should be read by professional and citizen journalists academics media activists policy makers and media audiences concerned about the future of democratic journalism in Canada

Education for Democracy 2.0 , 2021-01-04 Winner of the 2022 AESA Critics Choice Book Award Winner of the 2022 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award This diverse and global collection of scholars educators and activists presents a panorama of perspectives on media education and democracy in a digital age Drawing upon projects in both the formal and non formal education spheres the authors contribute towards conceptualizing developing cultivating building and elaborating a more respectful robust and critically engaged democracy Given the challenges our world faces it may seem that small projects programs and initiatives offer just a salve to broader social and political dynamics but these are the types of contestatory spaces openings and initiatives that enable participatory democracy This book provides a space for experimentation and dialogue and a platform for projects and initiatives that challenge or supplement the learning offered by traditional forms of education The Foreword is written by Divina Frau Meigs Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris and the Postscript by Roberto Aparici and David Garc a Mar n UNED Madrid Contributors are Roberto Aparici Adelina Calvo Salvador Paul R Carr Colin Chasi Sandra L Cuervo Sanchez Laura D Olimpio Milena Droumeva Elia Fern ndez Diaz Ellen Field Michael Forsman Divina Frau Meigs Aquilina Fueyo Guti rrez David Garc a Mar n Tania

Curtis,Lorne Tepperman,2006 A brief version of Lorne Tepperman s and James Curtis Sociology Canadian Perspectives this text introduces students to the study of sociology through an overview of sociological theories and research methods and a discussion of how these are applied to the study of major social processes and institutions A team of contributors explain key concepts and theories by examining Canadian society within a global context From Hobbits to Hollywood Ernest Mathijs,Murray Pomerance,2006 Peter Jackson s film version of The Lord of the Rings 2001 2003 is the grandest achievement of 21st century cinema so far But it is also linked to topical and social concerns including war terrorism and cultural imperialism Its style symbols narrative and structure seem always already linked to politics cultural definition problems of cinematic style and the elemental mythologies that most profoundly capture our imaginations From Hobbits to Hollywood Essays on Peter Jackson s Lord of the Rings treats Jackson s trilogy as having two conditions of existence an aesthetic and a political Like other cultural artefacts it leads a double life as objet d art and public statement about the world so that nothing in it is ever just cinematically beautiful or tasteful and nothing is ever just a message or an opinion Written by leading scholars in the study of cinema and culture From Hobbits to Hollywood gives Jackson s trilogy the fullest scholarly interrogation to date Ranging from interpretations of The Lord of the Rings ideological and philosophical implications through discussions of its changing fandoms and its incorporation into the Hollywood industry of stars technology genre and merchandising to considerations of CGI effects acting architecture and style the essays contained here open a new vista of criticism and light for ardent fans of J R R Tolkien followers of Jackson and all those who yearn for a deeper appreciation of cinema and its relation to culture Canadian Books in Print ,2003 Feminist Interventions in International Communication Katharine Sarikakis, Leslie Regan Shade, 2008 This cutting edge work critiques today's global mediascape through feminist perspectives highlighting concerns of policy power labor and technology Starting with the general state of international communications the book uses feminist political economic and policy analyses to explore the globalization of media industries including questions about women's employment and media content that is globally produced and consumed A top notch group of authors covers cases on online news pornography and explicit material political participation and democracy policies for women's development violence against women labor practices and information workers print media and publishing public telecentres media coverage of HIV AIDS and more Providing fresh feminist insights into international communication this essential book shows the important strides taken toward women's justice in these areas and how far there is yet to go Material Culture Review ,2008 Jahresbibliographie Massenkommunikation ,2003 Medien Hans-Bredow-Institut, 2004 Television Anthony Smith, Richard Paterson, 1998 From its earliest beginnings television was destined to become one of the great new forces at work in the twentieth century This new edition which includes six completely new chapters greatly expands the original and unique historical coverage of this most influential cultural phenomenon Written by a distinguished international team of specialists the book describes the history of television from its technical conception in the nineteenth century right through to the bewildering multi media developments of the present Alongside this historical account chapters provide important discussion of the central debates affecting television world wide from America Canada and Britain to Europe Scandinavia Japan China South Asia the Arab world Australia Africa and the Third World All genres of programme making news sport drama comedy are examined in the light of key questions how viewing practices affect particular societies how standards of taste and decency are arrived at the influence of television of government power the role of public service broadcasting and the relationship of television to terrorism and violence A thought provoking Epilogue ponders the likely impact and influence of television in the coming years This book is accessibly written and is a major exploration of the world's most dominant medium QUOTES FROM THE FIRST EDITION Those who wish to take a close look at the way television has affected the lives of people in other countries as well as their own will find all the information they need here a work which will earn its keep in the reference libraries but also merits a place on the bookshelves of individuals THES For those desiring to fully understand the medium that has dominated the later twentieth century The Business of Film What a terrific assembly of contributors to document an international story of television so many outstanding features in this book an important addition to documenting the global story of television in a single volume Journalism History Repère ,2009

Mediascapes New Patterns In Canadian Communication: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Mediascapes New Patterns In Canadian Communication : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Mediascapes New Patterns In Canadian Communication : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
