The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef and contains a simple harmonic accompaniment of chords and single notes.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It features a similar melodic line in the treble clef and accompaniment in the bass clef, with some notes held across bar lines.

The third system of musical notation shows the continuation of the melody and accompaniment. The bass line includes some longer note values and rests.

The fourth system of musical notation continues the piece, maintaining the melodic and harmonic structure established in the previous systems.

The fifth and final system of musical notation concludes the piece with a final melodic phrase and accompaniment.
