OPERATING SYSTEM CONCEPTS

Ninth Edition

International Student Version

The background of the book cover is a scenic landscape at sunset. The sun is low on the left side, casting a warm glow over a body of water. In the foreground, there are silhouettes of two long-necked dinosaurs (sauropods) standing near the water's edge. To the right, a large, textured rock formation or cliff is visible, with two birds perched on its edge. The sky is filled with soft, colorful clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and blue.
