- You may have more than 2 paragraphs. Depending on who the recipient is you will have varying levels of informality.
- It is generally accepted that in informal letters contracted forms can be used: can't instead of cannot; haven't instead of have not etc.
- You may also use a more colloquial language register - chatty tone that you might use in speech / mild slang words.
- Punctuation can be less formal: exclamation mark! used to signify shock or a joke; dashes - instead of commas; brackets used to separate additional ideas/references...

Degree of intimacy with recipient will determine the way you sign off:
Best wishes / Kind regards / Yours truly / With love...
