Merciful Every Muslim should read this important book Major sins in Islam M. I. Siddiqui,2006 The Concept of Sin in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Christoph Böttigheimer,Konstantin Kamp,2024-11-04 It is asserted by Judaism Christianity and Islam alike that sin is a central part of human life Where sin comes from however is answered differently in the respective religions While both the Bible and the Qur an agree that there was a kind of fall of Adam at the beginning of human history this fall is interpreted solely in classical Christian theology in terms of an original or ancestral sin Moreover the classical doctrine of original sin is becoming increasingly called into question in today s Christian theology This example already shows that the concept of sin is anything but clear What does sin mean Is sin primarily a violation of God s commandments Or does the term sin refer to a radical corruption of man s nature How does sin relate to man s redemption toward which all three religions aim The book The Concept of Sin in Judaism Christianity and Islam addresses these and related questions It analyzes how sin has been understood in the three religions in the past and the present and points out similarities and differences

On Theocratic Criminal Law Bahman Khodadadi,2024-09-25 On Theocratic Criminal Law explores the roots and structures of the criminal law system of the world s most prominent constitutional theocracy the Islamic Republic of Iran While discussing the processes of forced de westernization and de modernization which occurred in the wake of the Islamic Revolution this work examines how the Islamic conception of civil order and polity has been established within the legal and theological framework of the Iranian Constitution The book engages in a process of rational reconstruction of Iranian theocratic criminal law and offers a critical analysis of the way criminal law functions as the centrepiece of this mode of political domination It illuminates how this revelation based punitive ideology functions how the current Islamic Penal Code IPC mirrors prevailing Shiite jurisprudence and ultimately from what sort of fundamental defects theocratic criminal law in Iran is suffering This work provides a critical assessment of the criminalization and sentencing theories that have stemmed from the shariatization Islamization of all law in the wake of the Islamic Revolution of 1979 By embarking upon a typology of punishment in Shiite Islamic jurisprudence and the Iranian Islamic Penal Code the book then provides a systematic critical analysis of the three types of punishment stipulated in the Iranian Penal Code namely ta zir hadd and qisas It also explores the jurisprudential principles and dynamic power of Shiite Islam not only as a driving force behind political and social change but as a force that has been capable of forging a whole theocratic legal system

Wahhabi Islam : From Revival and Reform to Global Jihad Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding Georgetown University Natana J. DeLong-Bas Senior Research Assistant,2004-07-15

Before 9 11 few Westerners had heard of Wahhabism Today it is a household word Frequently mentioned in association with Osama bin Laden Wahhabism is portrayed by the media and public officials as an intolerant puritanical militant interpretation of Islam that calls for the wholesale destruction of the West in a jihad of global proportions In the first study ever undertaken of the writings of Wahhabism s founder Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab 1702 1791 Natana DeLong Bas shatters these stereotypes and misconceptions Her reading of Ibn Abd al Wahhab s works produces a revisionist thesis Ibn Abd al Wahhab was not the godfather of contemporary terrorist movements Rather he was a voice of reform reflecting mainstream 18th century Islamic thought His vision of Islamic society was based upon a monotheism in which Muslims Christians and Jews were to enjoy peaceful co existence and cooperative commercial and treaty relations Eschewing medieval interpretations of the Quran and hadith sayings and deeds of the prophet Muhammad Ibn Abd al Wahhab called for direct historically contextualized interpretation of scripture by both women and men His understanding of theology and Islamic law was rooted in Quranic values rather than literal interpretations A strong proponent of women s rights he called for a balance of rights between women and men both within marriage and in access to education and public space In the most comprehensive study of Ibn Abd al Wahhab s interpretation of jihad ever written DeLong Bas details a vision in which jihad is strictly limited to the self defense of the Muslim community against military aggression Contemporary extremists like Osama bin Laden do not have their origins in Wahhabism she shows The hallmark jihadi focus on a cult of martyrdom the strict division of the world into two necessarily opposing spheres the wholesale destruction of both civilian life and property and the call for global jihad are entirely absent from Ibn Abd al Wahhab s writings Instead the militant stance of contemporary jihadism lies in adherence to the writings of the medieval scholar Ibn Taymiyya and the 20th century Egyptian radical Sayyid Qutb This pathbreaking book fills an enormous gap in the literature about Wahhabism by returning to the original writings of its founder Bound to be controversial it will be impossible to ignore
