

Why should we do stylistics?

To do stylistics is to explore language, and, more specifically, to explore creativity in language use. Doing stylistics thereby enriches our ways of thinking about language and, as observed, exploring language offers a substantial purchase on our understanding of (literary) texts. With the full array of language models at our disposal, an inherently illuminating method of analytic inquiry presents itself. This method of inquiry has an important reflexive capacity insofar as it can shed light on the very language system it derives from; it tells us about the 'rules' of language because it often explores texts where those rules are bent, distended or stretched to breaking point. Interest in language is always at the fore in contemporary stylistic analysis which is why you should never undertake to do stylistics unless you are interested in language.

A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature. Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies, guides, reviews of research, encyclopedias, dictionaries, journals, and reference histories. The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness, and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate. Although cost-conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L. Harner's Literary Research Guide (Modern Language Assn of America, 1989), larger academic libraries will want Marcuse's volume. Jack Bales, Mary Washington Coll Lib, Fredericksburg, Va. Library Journal, Style in Fiction, Geoffrey Leech, 2007. Winner of the 25th Anniversary Prize by PALA, The Poetics and Linguistics Association as the most influential book published in the field of stylistics, 1980. In Style in Fiction, Geoffrey Leech and Mick Short demonstrate how stylistic analysis can be applied to novels and stories. Writing for both students of English language and English literature, they show the practical ways in which linguistic analysis and literary appreciation can be combined and illuminated through the study of literary style. Drawing mainly on major works of fiction of the last 150 years, their practical and insightful Qur'anic Stylistics, Hussein Abdul-Raof, 2004. Stylistic variation is the colourful manifestation of language. It is an intriguing linguistic phenomenon that can take place at different levels of language as it has been found in Qur'anic genre. Stylistic shift can occur within the sentence boundary at both the micro and the macro levels. In the micro text, stylistic variation occurs at the morpheme, word, and sentence levels. However, in the macro text, stylistic change can occur at the macro textual level beyond the sentence boundary. In other words, stylistically different sentences are found at different texts far away from each other. Stylistic variation mirrors language behaviour and the manipulation of the linguistic tools and strategies available to the text producer. Stylistic variation in Qur'anic Arabic occurs for a good reason and is context and co-text sensitive. Context and co-text are the linguistic habitat for stylistic shift. The surrounding grammatical, semantic, and phonetic environment has a direct impact upon the linguistic behaviour of Qur'anic genre. This is due to the fact that the text unfolds in a given context of situation. Therefore, the distinctive stylistic patterns are influenced by the contextual and co-textual factors. A linguistic stylistic exploration of sentence patterns illuminates the reader's appreciation of the grammatical and semantic subtleties underpinning the distinct meanings of two stylistically different but structurally identical sentences. A linguistic investigation of the stylistic patterns of language also unearths the underlying signification of two stylistically distinct sentences. The present analysis attempts to provide an insight into the resourceful stylistic and linguistic strategies of Arabic. The book sharpens up the reader's awareness of the exotic stylistic patterns that are semantically oriented. These stylistic structures can be realized through various linguistic processes that are specific to Arabic. The resourceful mechanism can be a useful linguistic tool to achieve various communicative functions with different semantic significations. The present account of Qur'anic genre explores how grammatical acceptability and semantic syntax are interrelated to stylistic variation in Arabic This work provides an in depth explicated analysis of stylistic variation in Qur'anic genre

Language and Literature (general), 1831 Exploring the Language of Poems, Plays and Prose Mick Short, 2018-10-08 Exploring the Language of Poems Plays and Prose examines how readers interact with literary works how they understand and are moved by them Mick Short considers how meanings and effects are generated in the three major literary genres carrying out stylistic analysis of poetry drama and prose fiction in turn He analyses a wide range of extracts from English literature adopting an accessible approach to the analysis of literary texts which can be applied easily to other texts in English and in other languages

A Stylistic Analysis of Selected Stories in Achebe's "Girls At War And Other Stories" Chidinma Dike, 2020-03-20 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject Literature Africa language English abstract This study aims at carrying out a stylistic analysis of selected short stories from Achebe's Girls at War and other stories

Stylistics a combination of style and literature is a discipline which has been approached in different ways by different scholars both in linguistic studies and literary studies it is a borderline discipline between linguistics and literature thus its definition varies based on the theory adopted For better understanding there is the need to explain what style is before defining the term stylistics Style is got from the Latin word Stilus which means a pointed instrument for writing on waxed tablets and has in modern times been associated with a way or manner of writing or speaking Otagburuagu et al 35 Style has also been defined as the description and analysis of the variability forms of linguistic items in actual language use It is the manner or mode of expressing one's thought in language A creative artist expresses his feeling thought ideas and vision through language and his unique way of using language to convey his feelings is what is called style E J Otagburuagu et al 2014 35 Leech and Michael in E J Otagburuagu et al 2014 define style as the linguistic characteristics of a particular text According to Otagburuagu et al Katie in her book A Dictionary of Stylistics 1989 classifies style into the following style as personal idiosyncrasy style as a technique of expression and style as the highest achievement of literature Stylistics has been defined as a study of the different styles that are present in either a given utterance or a written text or document Stylistics is derived from the word style and it concerns itself with the study of the techniques and manner in which people express their thought both in speech and writing Stylistics deals with a wide range of language varieties and styles that that are possible in creating different texts whether spoken or written monologue or dialogue formal or informal scientific or religious etc Stylistics unlike pragmatics that focuses on the what of a text concerns itself with the how and why of a text Leech in line with this defined stylistics as a linguistic approach to literature explaining the relation between language and artistic functions with motivating questions such as why and how more than what

Forensic Stylistics Gerald R. McMnamin, 1993 Author specific linguistic patterns can be objectively described and often measured making author identification possible in many cases This work demonstrates the validity of this claim and addresses the use of stylistic analysis for author identification and meaning interpretation

A Corpus Stylistic Approach to Charles

Dickens ,2013-04-22 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 3 University of Osnabr ck language English abstract Early Corpus linguistics and stylistics began with Chomsky s approach to language He explicitly stated that there are three levels of adequacy upon which grammatical and linguistic theories can be evaluated observational adequacy descriptive adequacy and explanatory adequacy This revolution through Chomsky founded the basis for corpus based analysis a method which uses adequate examples to give introspection how a language works and how it is used by different authors Corpus based analysis offers new insights into studies of language and new computer tools and software make it possible to get access to a wide range of electronic corpora In my research paper I will carry out a corpus stylistic approach to the language of 19th century author Charles Dickens This means that I will basically focus on his special register and investigate his use of particular clusters as recurrent combinations of words used in his corpus Furthermore I will focus on A Christmas Carol 1843 as an exemplifying novel of how language patterns are used by Dickens This masterpiece has the smallest number of words of all his novels namely 28 541 which renders it a special challenge to analyse Moreover it hasn t been analysed by many corpus linguists before which puts A Christmas Carol in the light of a nearly unexamined piece of art ready to explore My thesis which will be developed in the following chapters would be that Dickens s novels especially A Christmas Carol provide a unit of meaning their own worlds of text in which Dickens s unique style can be sifted out providing recurring clusters which offer a corpus work based on effective comparison To enter the deep analysis to provide a well worked out research paper I will start with a description and findings of corpus analysis Secondly I will spend a chapter on three four and five word clusters in the Dickens Corpus and especially A Christmas Carol with particular focus on five word clusters Moreover I will introduce the five categories of labels body part speech time and place and as if clusters and examine these categories in Dickens s Great Expectations 1861 and A Christmas Carol as two examples of a contrastive analysis I will finish my work by concluding my previous discoveries
