

Marketing Management- Introduction, objectives, Scope and Importance

In today's world of marketing, everywhere you go you are being marketed to in one form or another. Marketing is with you each second of your walking life. From morning to night you are exposed to thousands of marketing messages everyday. Marketing is something that affects you even though you may not necessarily be conscious of it.

After reading this post you'll understand – What exactly the marketing is, to whom it is beneficial for, and what are the nature and scope of marketing.

Definition of Marketing

According to American Marketing Association (2004) – "Marketing is an organisational function and set of processes for creating, communicating and delivering value to customers and for managing relationships in a way that benefits both the organisation and the stakeholder."

AMA (1960) – "Marketing is the performance of business activities that direct the flow of goods and services from producer to consumer or user."

According to Eldridge (1970) – "Marketing is the combination of activities designed to produce profit through ascertaining, creating, stimulating, and satisfying the needs and/or wants of a selected segment of the market."

According to Kotler (2000) – "A societal process by which individuals and groups obtain what they need and want through creating, offering, and freely exchanging products and services of value with others."

Nature of Marketing

1. Marketing is an Economic Function

Marketing embraces all the business activities involved in getting goods and services, from the hands of producers into the hands of final consumers. The business steps through which goods progress on their way to final consumers is the concern of marketing.

2. Marketing is a Legal Process by which Ownership Transfers

In the process of marketing the ownership of goods transfers from seller to the purchaser or from producer to the end user.

3. Marketing is a System of Interacting Business Activities

Marketing is that process through which a business enterprise, institution, or organization interacts with the customers and stakeholders with the objective to earn
