READING QUESTIONS: As you read, please answer the following questions for each chapter:

Chapter 1

1. Describe the setting of the story.

The story is set in Maycomb, Alabama. It is a small, country town. Grass grows on the sidewalks, porches come into the street in the rain. The time period of the story is not directly stated, but it is sometime soon after FDR's inaugural presidential address when he claimed that we, as a nation, have "nothing to fear but fear itself." This speech was in 1933.

2. From whose point of view is the story told? Name him/her. What do you know about him/her so far?

The story is told from Scout's point of view. She is 6 years old. She has a brother named Jem, age 9. Her dad is Atticus, and she has a cook named Calpurnia. She struggles to behave well for Calpurnia, and she is frequently in trouble with her. She seems to know a lot about Maycomb and her family.

3. Who is Jem? Describe him.

Jem is Scout's older brother, age 9. He argued with his father and tried to appear brave. He seemed to be cozy with Scout.

4. Who is Dill? Describe him.

Dill is Charles Baker Harris, age 6. He is the neighbor of Rachel Harpford, the woman who lived next door to the Finches. He is a small, lanky kid from Meridian, Mississippi. He had no father and he came to spend his summers with his aunt in Maycomb.

5. What had happened to Boo Radley? Why are the kids so fascinated with the house?

Boo Radley is also known as Arthur Radley. He got in trouble with the law when he was young; he was hanging out with the wrong crowd, some of the Cunninghams from Old Sarum. When he got in trouble, his father locked him in the house instead of sending him off to an industrial reform school with the other boys. He had become a recluse and he doesn't come out of the house. No one goes near the Radley house; it remained constantly shut up and they see little activity from the house, despite Maycomb's social culture.

Chapter 2

1. What do you think of Scout's teacher? What is her name? Can you find some qualities that would make her good and some that would make her not so good at her job?

Scout's teacher is Miss Caroline Fisher. She seems to not understand much about the town, she's in the school where she's teaching, or the students in her class, despite the fact that she is college educated. She has some good teaching qualities: she reads to the students and seems to have a method for teaching them. However, she does not know her students' backgrounds and therefore she ends up offending some of them, including Walter Cunningham.

2. Describe the Cunninghams.

The Cunninghams are a poor, farm family from the country. Walter doesn't bring his lunch to school because he can't afford to. However, the Cunninghams are known to pay people back with the things

Stepping to a Different Drummer Ann Rutten Henderson, 1994 Practical English, a Scholastic Magazine, 1963

Instructor's Manual Steve Chermak, Frank M. Schmallegger, 2003-02 Zen and the Practice of Teaching English Robert Tremmel, 1999 This book represents the first serious attempt by an educator to combine the practice of teaching

English with fundamental principles of Zen in an effort to help teachers achieve a new perspective on their professional lives. It is a personal book based on personal knowledge inviting readers to consider the possibility that the foundations of teaching practice are the very foundations of life and that life inside and outside the classroom is more like one life than two. Zen and the Practice of Teaching English originates in Robert Tremmel's struggles as a teacher and teacher educator. His book reaches out and rests on three important grounding points that define his life as a teacher: school because everything the author has to say is based on his daily work with students, student teachers, and secondary teachers; professional knowledge because Tremmel believes no one can live fully as a professional without maintaining contact with and participating in ongoing conversations with other professionals; and spiritual practice which is connected in this book to teaching practice and all the practices of living. Preservice teachers will come away from this book with a clearer understanding of their decision to teach and the disciplines and abilities they must cultivate for a solid beginning. Experienced teachers will gain a deeper appreciation of their own commitment and accomplishments and a renewed sense of fellowship with their colleagues throughout the profession. As Tremmel writes, "My purpose in writing this book is not to add to what I see as an already more than healthy and growing supply of scholarship about teaching. Instead I want to focus on what I finally found in my own teaching practice that helped me start making sense of the confusion that was my own but that I know is felt also by others who have teaching in their blood." (Middle School Journal, 2005; English Journal, 2004; Retracing the Journey, Leila Christenbury, 2007). Leila Christenbury is well known as a writer and researcher in English education. In her new book, this veteran teacher and teacher educator reveals what did and more surprisingly did not happen when she returned to the high school classroom after a hiatus of many years. Exploring her experiences in light of current teacher preparation reform efforts, the author's compelling narrative is a continuation of her earlier work that will resonate with those concerned with the state of secondary education in the United States today. (Effective Literacy Instruction, Judith A. Langer, 2002). Provides middle school and high school teachers with advice and guidance on creating effective literacy programs that support student learning. (Teaching English in Middle and Secondary Schools, Rhoda J. Maxwell, Mary Jordan Meiser, 2005). With continuing attention to constructivist theory and reflective practice, this book offers a comprehensive, realistic, integrated approach to teaching English language arts to middle and secondary school learners. In this fourth edition, content has undergone major reorganization and chapters have been significantly rearranged. Individual chapters on specific language arts are linked through a common focus on the reality of the language arts classroom, the responsibilities of the language arts teacher, and the means to meet these responsibilities through thoughtful, reflective, holistic teaching. For current and pre-service middle and secondary school English teachers.
