- ✓ You have an idea or a product that everyone says “You should start a business and sell your product”. “You can be your own boss and make money” or “This is great! People really need this”.
- ✓ So now you need to do a business plan.
- ✓ Yes, you can write this yourself.
- ✓ After all who knows you and your idea better than you!

Below are the basic steps to writing a good business plan that you can present to others that will give them the basic concept about your business idea, why it is a great idea, why you can do it, how you will sell it, and how you plan to finance it.

This will only be a basic plan, but it will give you the ability to present your idea in a professional manner. After you establish interest from a bank or investor, they will tell you what they need from you to close the deal.

Let’s get started!

STEP 1 – The Business Plan Outline

The first thing to do is create an outline for your plan. The outline should cover the main topics or points that will be important to the people that will read your plan. Some basic headings should be; (complete business plan outline listed below)
